

Condition Of President Continues Satisfactorily Without Complications

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER (U)—President Eisenhower's doctors reported early today that he had "an excellent night" in his fight for recovery from a heart attack.

The 7 a.m. MST bulletin from Fitzsimons Army Hospital came as a cozy air of cautious optimism continued to prevail around the President's bedside.

The latest medical report said: "The President had an excellent night."

"He slept soundly from 9:15 p.m. to 6:45 a.m."

"His condition continues to progress satisfactorily without complications."

There was no letup whatsoever in the physician's around-the-clock vigilance, because the crucial two-week danger period after a heart attack won't be up until Saturday. Any complications, the doctors have warned repeatedly, are likely to occur during those first 14 days.

Family Relaxes

But the Eisenhower family and relations are beginning to relax a bit.

Mrs. Eisenhower took in a motion picture last night at the Fitzsimons Army Hospital auditorium. It was her first real relaxation since she moved into a room across the hall from the President a few hours after he was hospitalized Sept. 24.

The auditorium movie screen was installed a few days ago near Eisenhower's eighth-floor suite so he will be able to see a motion picture himself eventually.

The First Lady's sister Mrs. Gordon Moore of Washington arrived here late yesterday to spend her 53rd birthday tomorrow with Mrs. Eisenhower and her mother Mrs. John S. Doud of Denver. They had a happy reunion at the hospital last night. On leaving after visiting with the First Lady in her room for an hour, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Doud called a cheerful "Hello" to the President at his door.

The President, a doting grandfather, got a powerful morale booster—a framed, 10 by 14-inch color photograph of his 7-year-old grandson David Eisenhower.

The picture recently appeared on the cover of a national magazine. Taken in August when the President and David were vacationing at a Rocky Mountain ranch, it shows the youngster in a cowboy hat with a trout fishing rod.

Eisenhower signed another half dozen documents yesterday afternoon. That was the largest number in any one day since he was hospitalized. Spadework on the documents was done in advance by aides.

$500,000 Disaster Aid

One of the documents authorized release of $500,000 in disaster relief funds for conservation measures in the hurricane and flood-damaged states of Connecticut, Massachusetts and North Carolina.

Another presidential action was acceptance of the resignation of Jack K. McFall as ambassador to Finland, and appointment of ca-

SEEK OWNER OF LOT IN TOWN

Gettysburg may have sent a notice to itself when it directed "whoever owns it" to place a sidewalk on a 26-foot strip of land on E. Middle St.

Borough engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner told council that he had assumed the 26-foot-wide lot, which extends 150 feet back from E. Middle St. to the alley, belonged to Joseph Hemler.

When orders were first issued some time ago to have a sidewalk placed there, Hemler was sent a notice and reported that it was not his land. He thought Mrs. Mary Ramer Eberhart owned it, Hemler told Winebrenner. Mrs. Eberhart said she did not own it, but it might be in the Winters estate which had gone to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Winebrenner said he and Attorney Donald E. McPherson had checked the property that went to the society and he did not believe that the land was among that property.

Then Attorney Eugene V. Bulleit, borough solicitor, said he had been informed that a reference is made in an ancient deed to the strip as having been given to the borough in 1912.

He said he planned to attempt to run down the ownership of the land today.

Glenny Addresses Fairfield Lions

Paul H. Glenny, game protector of Adams County, addressed the Fairfield Lions Club following the dinner-meeting in the Lutheran Parish House Tuesday evening. He was introduced by Glenn Shriner, program chairman.

Glenny told the group about the season for hunting various birds and when different breeds of birds were introduced in the various states. Pheasants, he said, were first taken into New Jersey in 1790, and into Pennsylvania in 1880. During the 1954 hunting season the report for the kill of ringneck pheasants was 446,000. In the small game class, the kill of ringneck pheasants ranks as the third largest in Pennsylvania. Glenny said all hunting hours are on Eastern Standard Time.

Maynard Stuckey, club president, presided, and announced the club will sponsor a shooting match to be held at the fire hall Saturday afternoon, October 22.

EXCHANGE WILL HOST TOURISTS ON OCTOBER 18

Some touring couple will find their visit to Gettysburg unusually rewarding October 18, according to plans being made by the local Exchange Club.

While Pennsylvania Week is no longer officially sponsored by the state, the Exchange Clubs of Pennsylvania are carrying on the "Pennsylvania Week" program as their own project. Exchange Club president John J. Slentz announced at Tuesday evening's meeting at Banker's restaurant.

The local club's program will consist of entertaining a touring couple. During the morning of October 18 a committee from the club will stop some out-of-state couple and invite them to be their guests for the next 24 hours. A tour of the battlefield, visits to the various places of interest in the community attendance at the Exchange Club meeting that night, a night's lodging and meals are among the activities planned.

Pharmacist Speaks
Robert W. Lewis, local pharmacist, was the speaker at Tuesday's meeting in observance of National Pharmacy Week. He said "The prescription department is the foundation of the modern drug store and pharmacy has been increasing and will continue to increase as long as there is a need for the compounding and mixing of drugs for health."

Frankincense and myrrh mentioned in the Bible are among the drugs that have been used in modern pharmacy, Lewis said, in comparing pharmacy of a few years ago to the increased number of drugs available for medicines today.

President Slentz announced that the firemen will be guests of the club next Tuesday for a Fire Prevention Week program.

FIREMEN PLAN PROGRAM HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Adams County will mark the opening of Fire Prevention Week Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock with a display of fire equipment and a program in Lincoln Square.

Arrangements were being completed today by Fire Chief Donald W. McSherry and Assistant Chiefs Donald Staub and Francis Linn for approximately 25 fire engines from throughout the county area to be in Lincoln Square for the mass demonstration of the equipment available to fight fires.

The speaking program, Chief McSherry said, "will be based mostly on the fact that while the firemen have equipment to put out fires, the job of fire prevention is, to a large extent, up to each and every individual. Firemen are called after fires break out and we seek to put them out as quickly as possible. But each individual in his own home, by preventing the possibility of fire, can do much more to keep down the fire loss than can the firemen."

Will Broadcast Program
The local fire chiefs expressed their appreciation to the fire chiefs of the county who plan to have fire engines or other equipment here for the demonstration.

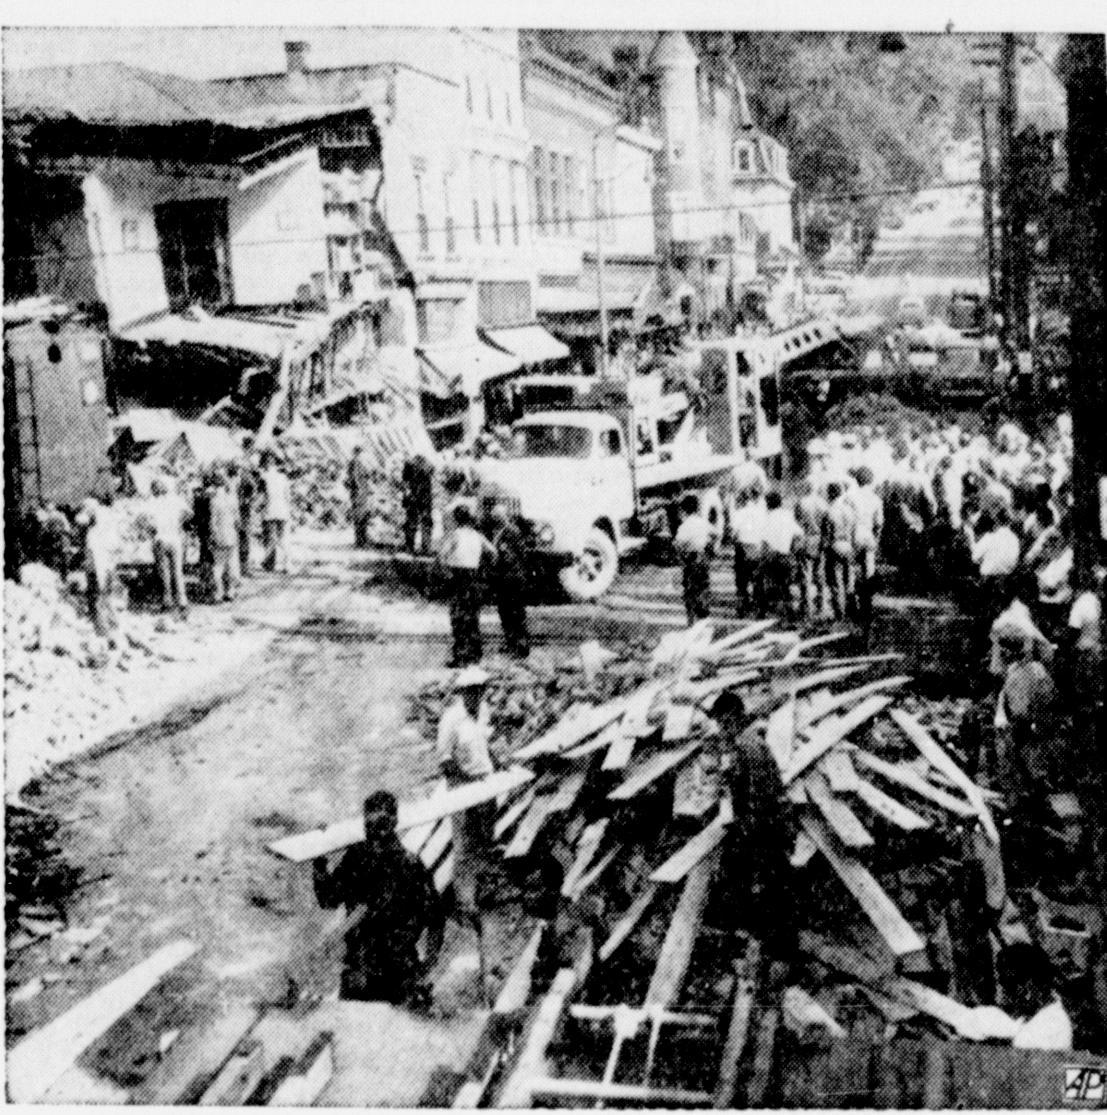

"We hope by massing the equipment to make such an impressive spectacle that everyone who sees it will become more conscious of the danger of fire and the need for fire prevention measures in the home," McSherry said.

WGFT will broadcast the speaking part of the program plus interviews with fire chiefs and firemen from the various companies participating.

Among the speakers at the program will be Adams County Fire Marshal John Murren, of Hanover R. 4.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Prince of Peace Church will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the parish house.

Four persons in the buildings were killed, along with the truck driver, tentatively identified as Claude Brande, Warrenton, N. C. Truck was loaded with lumber. (AP Wirephoto)

District Governor To Visit Lions Club

James E. Hileman, district governor of Lions International, will visit the Gettysburg Lions Club next Monday. He will advise and assist President Earl E. Ziegler and Secretary Ralph E. Barley, and other officers, directors and members of the club on matters relative to Lions administration and the Lions' program of humanitarian service.

Hileman is a past president of the Kreutz Creek Valley Lions Club. He also served as deputy district governor for the past two years in his region, and was cabinet secretary for two former district governors.

Runaway Lumber Truck Runs Into Freight Of Explosives And Kills Five, Injures Two

WEST NEWTON, Pa. (U)—A runaway lumber truck, horn blowing frantically, roared half a mile down a steep hill and smashed into a moving train yesterday.

Nine freight cars were flung from the Baltimore and Ohio tracks. They crushed the truck like a tin can and demolished two buildings.

The truck driver, Claude Brandt, 31, Warrenton, N. C., and four other people were killed.

Three derailed cars contained explosives but did not blow up. Some of the cars smashed into the Casale Fruit Store on one side of the tracks, others into a hardware store on the other side.

Dead were Jacob Casale, 50, owner of the fruit store; Sheryl Ross, 6, daughter of a West Newton restaurant proprietor; Sheryl's grandmother Mrs. Dora Whiteman, about 70, of Industry, Pa.; and Mrs. Martha C. McConnell, 70, West Newton.

Has Broken Back
Mrs. William Ross, mother of Sheryl, suffered a broken back and fractured pelvis. Emily Peterel suffered minor injuries.

Engineer William McManus, Connelville, Pa., said he saw the speeding truck "but there was nothing I could do."

Lloyd Mauk, a civil defense auxiliary policeman, said he heard the truck horn wailing.

"After the truck hit the train all I saw was lumber flying," he related. "Then there was a big cloud of dust. I jumped down and went over to help."

Grimly, Mauk told how he saw the body of the Ross child, a blood-stained doll in her arms.

There were few people on the street of this community of 3,800, about 35 miles southeast of Pittsburgh, when the crash occurred. One businessman said:

"It was terrible but it would have been worse except for the World Series. Most everyone was indoors looking at television or listening to the radio."

Two railroad wrecking crews worked through the night to clear the B&O's main east-west route between Cumberland, Md., and Pittsburgh.

A large area was blocked off while the dynamite was unloaded. Sheriff Howard E. Thomas estimated total damage might be close to one million dollars.

Meanwhile, several investigations were launched to determine the cause of the wreck. One official said he believed the truck brakes had failed.

Recollections Of Lincoln's Guard Here Are Related To Historical Society Tuesday

When Lincoln came to Gettysburg in 1863, members of one of Gettysburg's military units guarded him. Homer N. Young, Secretary of the Adams County Historical Society at its meeting Tuesday evening in the court house.

Most of Young's talk was devoted to the recollections of Hugh Paxton Bigham, for a half-century a Greenmont merchant and postmaster, and director of the Gettysburg National Bank. Bigham was a young first sergeant of Co. B, 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry, who guarded the door to Lincoln's room in the White House during part of the night of November 18-19, 1863, and who was on guard at the rostrum when the President spoke at the National Cemetery.

Bigham was a member of an independent Adams County cavalry unit headed by Capt. Robert S. Bell which was organized here in June, 1863, took part in the first skirmish of the battle of Gettysburg June 26, 1863, took part in the fight at Wrightsburg June 28 and then returned to Gettysburg to become Company B of the 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry during the battle here.

Chosen As Guards
Pvt. George W. Sandoe, the first soldier killed at Gettysburg, was a member of Bigham's company which with the 26th Pennsylvania Emergency regiment met Confederate forces west of here June 26 when the opening shot of the battle was fired.

Bigham's recollections were obtained in 1928. Bigham's unit was selected to serve as guards for the President. Sgt. Bigham was on duty outside Lincoln's room. "After the President had his supper he went to his room. A few went to him there. Then a telegraph boy was passed upstairs and approached and said he had a telegram for the President. I gently tapped on the door and Mr. Lincoln arose and took the telegram.

Receives Good News
"The door was slightly open and I saw him pondering over the telegram. Then he walked to the door and as if talking to his closest friend said 'Guard, that dispatch brought me good news. I was not sure that I could come to Gettysburg because my son Tad was supposed to be seriously sick in the White House. He improved the day before I left Washington. This dispatch tells me that he is very much better now. Thank God for this news. I can sleep better tonight.'"

Sgt. Paxton told of watching the President as he looked over some papers. Pvt. James Rebert of Bigham's company was dispatched for some paper, which Bigham said he believed was obtained from Judge Wills' office. Lincoln, "for a considerable time, seemed to be copying his speech, for it is well known he had prepared his speech in the White House ten days before. Just as I understood it, he was revising sentences . . . to make it more forceful."

Visited Seward
After a time, Bigham said, Lincoln came to the door again and asked if Bigham knew where Secretary Seward was staying. Bigham said he took the President over to the Harper house with the President holding on to Bigham's blouse, (Continued On Page 4)

COLLEGE DEAN SAYS HE LIKES SPIRIT OF TOWN

Dr. Seymour B. Dunn, dean of Gettysburg College, outlined various administrative aspects and briefly touched upon the philosophy of the college in a talk before the Woman's League of Gettysburg College Tuesday afternoon at Christ Lutheran Church at the first meeting of the group this fall.

The new dean said, "I like Gettysburg and hope to stay here. I like the friendly spirit which pervades the town, the college, the hotel and the whole Gettysburg area, although I still feel in the tourist stage as I have only been here since July."

Before coming to Gettysburg Dr. Dunn was dean of men at Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y. "I like a small college," he said, "because a teacher gets to know his students. The real education mission of a small college is the personal contact, influence and interest between a professor and his student. The four-year college experience comes at an important time in the life of a young man and woman. It is a time for intellectual growth. A teacher can do a lot to help this growth by working with his pupil both in the classroom and outside of it."

Church-Related School

"The very important feature of a liberal arts college lies in its general tone, not through formal instruction alone. It is the overall experience of four years which gives the student a sense of responsibility," he said. "Another important feature of Gettysburg College is the fact that it is a church-related. In fact the whole town is a church-going community. If you miss church here you have to have an excuse.

DR. SEYMOUR B. DUNN

"Sometimes when there is a change in the administration of a school," he explained, "people are inclined to question the future and wonder if changes will take place. They need have no fear because changes in administration will not change the tradition and personality of the college. We who know the mission of a small college, like Gettysburg, also recognize its problems."

LOVE APPEAL LEADS TO JAIL

Efforts of Garrett T. Mason, 25, Gettysburg R. 1 to see his "girl friend" Tuesday afternoon led to his being lodged in the county jail.

While state police declined to give no details, it was learned that Mason left his place of employment at the C. H. Musselman Co. plant in Biglerville and went to the Knoke Foods Cooperative Plant, at Peach Glen, to see a "girl friend." Foremen left the conversation and asked Mason to leave. At that time he allegedly drew a knife and a scuffle followed.

He was placed in the county jail and arraigned at 1 o'clock this afternoon before Justice of the Peace Charles Hemler, Cumberland Township, on charges of assault and battery and violation of the uniform firearms act in having possession of a knife.

Wanted: Girl to work in office located in Gettysburg. General office, bookkeeping machine operation and typing necessary. Permanent position. For interview, write application letter to Box 25, c/o Gettysburg Times.

$90,000 ANNEX TO BE BUILT AT SHOPPING AREA

A $90,000 addition will be constructed at the Gettysburg Shopping Center, at the intersection of Chambersburg and West Sts. and Springs and Buford Aves. Glenn L. Bream, director of the Glenn L. Bream Trust Fund, announced today.

The new unit, ground for which was broken this morning, will consist of three stores to be built at the south end of the present structure extending toward W. Middle St., and east from the alley along W. Middle St., 144 feet.

The largest addition will be a modern furniture and appliance store for N. O. Sixeas, now located at the corner of Chambersburg and S. Washington Sts. This addition will be 80 x 144 feet and will have two fronts, one on W. Middle St. and the other on the parking lot. Five large display windows and an entrance will front W. Middle St. and a second entrance and a large double window will front the parking lot.

Sixeas' store will extend 27 feet 8 inches beyond the present building line of the Shopping Center.

Erect 2 Other Stores

The new structure will be "L" shaped in design. It will begin at the south side of the present Pennsylvania Employment office. Two large stores will be erected at that section. One will be 20 feet deep at the front entrance, 42 feet at the lower side and 89 feet deep. The other store will be 16 feet wide and 80 feet deep. All stores will have fronts on the parking lot. The new structure, first addition to the $125,000 Shopping Center erected in 1953, will be of buff colored brick, steel and concrete blocks. It is scheduled to be completed March 1.

The present parking lot will be enlarged to accommodate a total of 150 cars. The entire area will be chiseled off for easier parking. The third store in the original Center will be completed this year.

Lay New Sidewalks

Bream said that 10-foot sidewalks will be laid on the W. Middle St. side and six-foot walks on West St. and on the parking lot side. He also said that the area remaining, 80 x 123, is available for three additional stores.

The Glenn L. Bream Trust Fund will erect the building. The Gettysburg Construction Company is the contractor. Paul B. Knox is manager of the construction project and Herbert Plunkert, Littlestown, is the architect.

$455 DONATED TO CHEST FUND; $19,700 IS GOAL

Contributions of $455.50 to the Community Chest Tuesday brought the total so far to $2,694.75, Campaign Chairman John C. "Buck" Stahl reported today.

The amount represents cash, checks and pledged turned in to the Chest office in the Chamber of Commerce office, Plaza Building. Stahl said. Included in the amount is more than $900 sent in by residents of the rural areas who were approached by mail.

Stahl expressed his appreciation to the solicitors who, he said, "are doing a good job. The reports each evening show that most have been out collecting and will call on all on their lists before the end of the drive next Monday."

Appreciate IFC Gift

Stahl also expressed his appreciation of the college "Interfraternity Council" donation to the Chest. He said, "These students recognize the great need for the services provided as a result of the funds raised by Community Chest, and are contributing even though they themselves will not derive as great a benefit as the people of the town. Funds raised by Community Chest provide everything from dances for our high school students, to clubs for our septuagenarians, and nursing service for our ill. The Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, the library, the YWCA, Recreation Association and Civic Nurse are all supported by the money the people of Gettysburg give to the Community Chest."

HOST CLAIMS LEADER POSES FALSE FRONT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Miles Horst, Republican state chairman, said today Gov. Leader will come up with "a new version" of the classified income tax after the Nov. 8 municipal election.

"Gov. Leader is trying to give the impression that he has given up his efforts to force his unfair and unjust wage and income tax through the Legislature this year," he declared.

Horst said Democrats are seeking to put off a decision until after election, adding:

"They are hoping that the differences that a few misguided persons recently have been attempting to stir up among Republicans will result in our party making a poor showing in some of the very important local elections this year."

Horst made the statement in a speech, prepared for delivery at a meeting of Republican county chairmen, as Republican and Democratic leaders went into the second compromise tax conference with Gov. Leader in as many days.

Yesterday's conference lasted all day and extended into a night session but neither side gave any indication that any progress was made toward agreement on a tax program.

The conferees were reportedly studying Gov. Leader's proposed $1,800,000,000 budget item by item.

Edward B. Logan, budget secretary under five Republican governors, joined the conferees yesterday as a principal advisor to Republican participants in the sessions.

Logan was replaced as budget secretary by Andrew Bradley when Leader took office last January.

BIG CHICKEN THIEF

KENTON, Ohio (AP)—Roy King, farmer, solved the mystery of his disappearing chickens, but was surprised at the size of the thief. He killed an owl having a wing spread of 5 1/2 inches. It weighed 3 1/2 pounds.

Give applesauce good flavor by adding sugar to taste, dash of salt, lemon rind and lemon juice, a suspicion of nutmeg. Taste wonderful over vanilla ice cream.

JAVA VOTE AIDS FORMER PREMIER

By LARRY ALLEN

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Ali Sastroamidjojo was on his way back to leadership of the Indonesian government today as his Communist-backed Nationalist party continued to roll up an impressive lead in returns from the island republic's first general elections.

With almost two thirds of the total expected vote counted, official tabulations gave the Nationalists 4,874,773. The Muslim Orthodox Radicals had 1,137,687 and the Muslim M. sumi—before the election considered Indonesia's largest party—trailing with 3,882,299.

About a million and a half other votes, counted by scattered tabulations, were scattered among 186 other parties or individual candidates for the Parliament's 260 seats.

Heavy Javanese Vote

Most of the count so far was from Java, most populous of Indonesia's 3,000 islands. The big central island will send 166 members to Parliament and the Nationalists appeared certain to capture a majority of the House.

The young Sastro last Thursday will continue for weeks on outlying islands. But the outcome in Java was expected to be decisive.

Two Face Trial For Rich Widow's Murder

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Raymond P. Wilson, 35, charged with murdering a wealthy widow in her Adelphe Hotel suite last July, was held for grand jury action yesterday.

The victim, Mrs. Luluibel H. Rosman, was found strangled in her room on July 4.

Meanwhile, Frank J. Ellsworth, who also is accused by police in the slaying, lost his court battle in Memphis, Tenn., against extradition to Philadelphia.

The pair originally was arrested in Las Vegas, Nev., shortly after the slaying. They were gambling with $100 bills and had $87,000 in cash at the time of their arrest.

ALWAYS A FIRST

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—A 50-year-old man from Brilliant, Ohio, yesterday earned the dubious distinction of being the first motorist punished for driving the wrong way on Ohio's new turnpike. Lawrence A. Brooks, also convicted of drunk driving, was fined $150 and sentenced to three days in jail by Mayor J. Grant Keys.

BARTLETT TELLS LIONS CLUB OF SAFE DRIVING

Safety on the highways and the work of policeman were outlined Tuesday evening by Gettysburg Police Chief Jack Bartlett in a talk before the Upper Adams Lions Club at its meeting in the Biglerville elementary school cafeteria.

Motorists who "drive unconsciously" and who "fail to have the courtesy to give proper signals" cause many accidents, the police chief declared.

"We are all guilty from time to time of driving while we are not alert. How many times have you driven some distance and then suddenly wonder when you passed through a community. You know you must have driven through it, but you have no recollection of having done so. Such unconscious driving can be the deadliest. Your body, because it has been trained to drive, is driving and probably driving well—as long as there is nothing in the path of your car. But if some emergency occurs, a child runs out into the street, or a car pulls in front of you, where are you going to be if you are driving with your mind on something else.

Signals Are Important
"Signals are highly important because they let the other driver know what you are doing and he can take such action as is necessary to avoid a crash. Policemen have more gray hairs than they should have because people will not give them signals as to their intentions. The policeman at a crossing or an intersection is there to help you to where you are going as quickly as possible. If you are approaching an intersection where there is a policeman, a hand signal can let him know where you want to go, and he can safely direct you in that direction if it is at all possible. But if he doesn't know where you are going, how can you expect him to do more than wave you through. And if you are going to make a turn, and the policeman waves you through not knowing that you plan a turn, what is going to happen when you meet that truck he's waving through on the other side because he expects you to go straight ahead?"

Approximately 60 attended the meeting with First Vice President Clair Shillito presiding in the absence of President Elmer Yoder. Two new members, Rev. Robert K. Shaull, Arendtsville, and Richard Cogley, Biglerville, were introduced. Following the regular meeting, a zone meeting was held under the direction of the zone chairman, Donald Horst.

GHS RESERVES DEFEATED 20-7 BY BUBBLERS

Bolling Springs' junior varsity football team handed the Gettysburg High Javvies a 20-7 defeat Tuesday afternoon on the Bubblers' field.

A blocked punt gave the Bubblers possession on the Gettysburg 20 in the first period to set the stage for Sherman to slash over and add the extra point on a plunge.

The Bubblers added their second six-pointer in the second quarter after recovering a Warrior fumble. Stone tallied on an end run while the try for the point was halted.

Shortly after receiving the second half kickoff, Kenny Keefe swept around end and raced 69 yards for the only Gettysburg TD. He added the point on an end run.

Bolling Springs marched 80 yards on short gains to enable Davidson to crack over in the final period. Stone punted for the point.

Don Bickel will next take his javvies to Hanover for a game Thursday, October 13.

THREE ESCAPEES ARE CAPTURED

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—An intensive round-the-clock manhunt continued today for three inmates of a mental hospital who broke out of custody yesterday after overpowering two guards.

Three other escapees were captured several miles away after they had fled the Fairview State Hospital for the Criminal Insane.

One of the men still at large—and police believe they may be armed with knives—was Paul Cook, a 34-year-old Beaver Falls, Pa., man convicted of murdering his father, mother and sister 16 years ago.

The two others still sought are Ernest Johnson, 42, Pittsburgh, leader of a mass break from the hospital in June, and Richard Williams, 38, Johnstown, Pa.

Recaptured within 10 hours after they fled were Benjamin Porter, a convicted Philadelphia slayer; Frampton Lundy, 33, Rockville Center, N. Y., and Alphonso Backus, 35, Philadelphia.

Dr. John P. Shovlin, hospital superintendent, said the six inmates overpowered guards Jay Owens and Edward Battle, who came running to their ward on a race that someone needed medical attention.

Sir Eric, whose company operates a 60 million dollar newsprint mill at Calhoun, Tenn., as part of a world-wide organization, made his remarks on the price of printing paper used by newspapers at a news conference.

The statement was prompted by mention of Milton Eisenhower, the President's younger brother and head of Pennsylvania State University, as a possible Republican presidential candidate.

THREE ESCAPEES ARE CAPTURED

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—An intensive round-the-clock manhunt continued today for three inmates of a mental hospital who broke out of custody yesterday after overpowering two guards.

Three other escapees were captured several miles away after they had fled the Fairview State Hospital for the Criminal Insane. One of the men still at large—and police believe they may be armed with knives—was Paul Cook, a 34-year-old Beaver Falls, Pa., man convicted of murdering his father, mother and sister 16 years ago.

The two others still sought are Ernest Johnson, 42, Pittsburgh, leader of a mass break from the hospital in June, and Richard Williams, 38, Johnstown, Pa.

Recaptured within 10 hours after they fled were Benjamin Porter, a convicted Philadelphia slayer; Frampton Lundy, 33, Rockville Center, N. Y.; and Alphonso Backus, 35, Philadelphia.

Dr. John P. Shovin, hospital superintendent, said the six inmates overpowered guards Jay Owens and Edward Battle, who came running to their ward on a ruse that someone needed medical attention.

BARTLETT TELLS LIONS CLUB OF SAFE DRIVING

Safety on the highways and the work of policeman were outlined Tuesday evening by Gettysburg Police Chief Jack Bartlett in a talk before the Upper Adams Lions Club at its meeting in the Bigler-ville elementary school cafeteria.

Motorists who "drive unconsciously" and who "fail to have the courtesy to give proper signals" cause many accidents, the police chief declared.

"We are all guilty from time to time of driving while we are not alert. How many times have you driven some distance and then suddenly wonder when you passed through a community. You know you must have driven through it, but you have no recollection of having done so. Such unconscious driving can be the deadliest. Your body, because it has been trained to drive, is driving and probably driving well—as long as there is nothing in the path of your car. But if some emergency occurs, a child runs out into the street, or a car pulls in front of you, where are you going to be if you are driving with your mind on something else.

Signals are important. "Signals are highly important because they let the other driver know what you are doing and he can take such action as is necessary to avoid a crash. Policemen have more gray hairs than they should have because people will not give them signals as to their intentions. The policeman at a crossing or an intersection is there to help you get to where you are going as quickly as possible. If you are approaching an intersection where there is a policeman, a hand signal can let him know where you want to go, and he can safely direct you in that direction if it is at all possible. But if he doesn't know where you are going, how can you expect him to do more than wave you through. And if you are going to make a turn, and the policeman waves you through not knowing that you plan a turn, what is going to happen when you meet that truck he's waving through on the other side because he expects you to go straight ahead?"

Approximately 60 attended the meeting with First Vice President Clair Shillito presiding in the absence of President Elmer Yoder. Two new members, Rev. Robert K. Shaul, Arendtsville, and Richard Cogley, Biglerville, were introduced.

Following the regular meeting a zone meeting was held under the direction of the zone chairman, Donald Horst.

GHS RESERVES DEFEATED 20-7 BY BUBBLERS

Bolling Springs' Junior varsity football team handed the Gettysburg High Jayvees a 20-7 defeat Tuesday afternoon on the Bubblers' field.

The Bubblers added their second six-pointer in the second quarter after recovering a Warrior fumble. Stone tallied on an end run while the try for the point was halted.

Shortly after receiving the second half kickoff, Kenny Keefe swept around end and raced 60 yards for the only Gettysburg TD. He added the point on an end run.

Bolling Springs marched 80 yards on short gains to enable Davidson to crack over in the final period. Stone punted for the point.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Izaak Walton League Elects At Emmitsburg: At the first regular meeting of the Emmitsburg chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America at which plans were formulated consistent with the national association the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, L. L. Mondorf; vice president, the Rev. Philip Bower; secretary, Dr. O. H. Hinson; treasurer, J. Ward Kerrigan.

Gettysburg Downs Villanova 3 to 0: Maroons Win 51-0: A plucky, fighting, courageous band of rifle-marked Bullets wearing the Orange and Blue of G-burg, minus the services of two veterans, and rated the underdogs in their second clash of the 1930 football season, outsmarted, outthought and outplayed Harry Stuhldreher's fleet-footed and hard hitting Villanova Wildcats, in the Main Line stadium at Villanova, Saturday afternoon and walked off the gridiron on the Long end of a 3 to 0 score. Larry Morris' spectacular and accurately placed boot of a placement kick gave Hen Bream's Gettysburgians a well-earned victory over the Wildcats.

Displaying a strong offense punch, Gettysburg high school's football machine rolled over New Cumberland high here on Saturday by a score of 51-0. It marked the first conference game for the Bullets and gave them a fine start toward another Southern Pennsylvania championship.

Couple Wed: Guy Lodging Bolen, formerly of Arendtsville, and Miss Esther Helen Lawrence, West Midway street, were married by the Rev. Earl J. Bowman at St. James Lutheran Parsonage Saturday morning.

Gettysburg Industries Operating At Capacity: Employing New Workers: If Gettysburg has an unemployment problem, it was not apparent today.

The borough's three principal industries are running at full capacity at the present time, a survey revealed, and during the last two weeks, two of them have added 100 new employees.

The Eagle Silk company mill here is probably busier than any other silk mill in the state. Seventy-five experienced silk workers were brought from Shippensburg and Hagerstown within the past week. Robert Berkeimer, manager of the branch here, said today, to keep the plant operating at capacity.

During practically the same period, the Victor Products company, manufacturers of rubber heels, have added a number of additional workmen. At present 125 are employed at the Victor Products plant here, while the average employment in the past has been only 90 persons.

The Gettysburg furniture factories are also operating under a more than normal basis. The plant is operating at capacity during the daytime and is also operating several hours several nights each week.

Miss Clara M. Yohe Is Wed At Home: Miss Clara Mae Yohe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton B. Yohe, Hamilton township, and David Henry Dahlheimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Dahlheimer, Roundtown, York county, were married at the home of the bride's parents at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. The Rev. Paul Gladfelter, pastor of the Abbotstown Lutheran church, performed the ceremony.

Large Garage To Be Turned Indoor Pygmy Golf Links: An indoor golf course for Gettysburg, the first of its kind here, is assured with the leasing by C. W. Epley, Chambersburg street garage proprietor, of the Gettysburg garage, York street, from Frank R. Peckman. The lease for the large concrete block and steel building was signed Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Peckman, who has been in the automobile business since 1912 and in the garage business since 1916, part of the time in Biglerville, said he would bid farewell to the automobile business and devote his time to selling and serv-

Today's Talk

THE HIDDEN SECRET

Few of us ever realize the power we have over others. There is a hidden secret within us all that gives us this power, unknown to us. Circumstances, opportunity, or perhaps just through chance, this power is suddenly brought to fruition. When this happens something is revealed to us, like the joy and happiness when we have made someone else happy.

I have been much interested in the Billy Graham meetings that have been so greatly publicized. We heard him on the radio and were convinced of his sincerity, but we thought of him as we have of many evangelists. Not until after he had attracted the great crowds in Europe, and revealed his power over mammoth gatherings did we realize the tremendous influence he had over people. He seemed to have discovered himself in the message that he delivered.

Perhaps that is the hidden secret, after all — discovering oneself, thus becoming a power for good over others. It is "that something" that makes one salesman effective above another. It is something to thank God for, anyway, for we never get genuine happiness until we begin to spread it and affect the lives of others through our influence.

Through the power of prayer many discover this hidden secret within them, and often it makes healers of them, for they become largely selfless. The late Dr. George Washington Carver attributed to prayer his remarkable discoveries. I have a little book in which it is stated that "he talked with flowers" and he once told a friend of mine that he could pick out the ones in his audience, when he talked, that were spiritually minded.

Charles A. Lindbergh, in the introduction to a remarkable little book, "The Voyage to Lourdes," by Dr. Alexis Carrel, said this: "Carrel's greatest interest lay in man. He used man as a path to God. He had confidence in the application of science to the life of modern man." Few great scientists have believed in the power of prayer as did Dr. Carrel. His life was a discovery of the hidden secret.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Timeless Values." Protected, 1955, George Matthew Adams Service.

GET OUT THE TUXEDO

Once again the banquet season. And the usual feast of reason, with the fruit cups and the salads. And the singers with their ballads. And the introductions later. Of the lesser and the greater.

Soon again the old command: "Take a bow, and then standing. For applause we're not allowing until all have finished bowing."

Then the wires and letters pleasant. From the one who are not present.

Then the sound of voices clearing. As the time to speak is nearing. Next the speeches grave or witty. Vote of thanks for the committee. Then, "Good night. For next year sign up."

Last, the dreary check room lineup.

Pennsy Passengers Miss Early Innings

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Somebody goofed—and a patch of baseball fans aboard a Pennsylvania Railroad train missed the first three innings of Monday's World Series game.

The train left here for New York City, but wound up instead in Jersey City. Railroad officials said a wrong switch was pulled.

After backtracking, the train finally reached its proper destination some 40 minutes late.

Leaving tractors, law-mowers and road building machinery.

The Gettysburg garage, which measures 60 by 180 feet is one of the largest in Gettysburg and is said to be laid out ideally for an indoor golf course.

Rev. Wm. Beattie Succeeds Stine As U. B. Pastor: The Rev. F. L. Stine, pastor of the Gettysburg United Brethren church in Christ, West High street for seven years, will be succeeded here by the Rev. William M. Beattie, of Shiremans-town. The Rev. Mr. Stine was transferred to Boonsboro, Maryland.

Another change in Adams county was the transfer of the Rev. A. C. Crone from Bendersville to Jefferson, York county. The Rev. Mr. Crone will be succeeded at Bendersville by the Rev. J. R. Payson. The Rev. J. B. Reed Jr. was returned to the Biglerville United Brethren church.

KNIGHT WANTS TO CONTROL 70 GOP DELEGATES

By MORRIS LANDSBERG
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Goodwin J. Knight said today he intends to head California's delegation to the 1956 Republican National Convention even if it means an open fight with Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

He reiterated that if President Eisenhower, his first choice, doesn't run, he will seek control of the state's important bloc of votes himself as a favorite son—and only nominal—candidate.

Knight, in an interview marking the start of his third year in office, made no attempt to hide his coolness toward Nixon.

He said he has heard rumor that the vice president's home-state supporters are planning to enter their own slate of delegates in the June California primary if Eisenhower bows out of the race. California voters select convention delegates of both parties in a presidential primary election. The delegates must be pledged to a candidate who has given his written consent.

Will Ignore Nixon
Asked if a Nixon ticket would affect his plans for a Knight-pledged delegation, the governor replied, "Not in the slightest." "We are going all the way regardless of what Mr. Nixon does," he said firmly.

Knight agreed the California delegation—second only, with 70 votes, to New York's 96 in 1952—would be vital to Nixon's presidential hopes but, he said: "The Republicans of California will want to be represented by a completely independent delegation devoted to the Republican party and not to the ambitions of any one man."

He said he has heard no talk of a slate committed to Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.). Knight and Knowland have worked closely together on state party organization.

The governor said the California delegation would decide during the convention in San Francisco next year on the presidential nominee who would be best for the party.

Nixon Lunches With House Leader

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon Tuesday arranged to lunch with Rep. Arends (Ill.), assistant Republican leader in the House.

Asked by reporters if he expected to discuss the politically-tough farm situation, Nixon declined to say specifically but commented "Arends has been through the farm belt."

Nixon said he will go to the White House this afternoon for a series of conferences with presidential aides preparing for meetings later this week of the National Security Council and the Cabinet.

Why Your Child Should Get Polio Vaccination

By HART E. VAN RIPER, M.D.
Medical Director National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis

(Editor's note: This is the second of a series of five articles on what parents should know about the Salk polio vaccine. Under Dr. Van Riper's direction the National Foundation sponsored the research development of the vaccine and he is in charge of the Foundation's program for vaccinating children in the first and second grades of school.)

"Why did my child get polio? None of his playmates had it."

Many a parent, suddenly confronted with the dreaded diagnosis of paralytic polio, has asked this question.

The answer is that one of the child's playmates, or some other person who was not ill himself, did indeed have the polio virus, and did communicate it. The unwitting carrier was protected from paralysis by polio antibodies in his blood. The child who came down with paralytic polio was not.

Had that child been given the vaccine that Dr. Jonas E. Salk developed with support from the March of Dimes, he might have been spared paralysis. His parents could not have been sure of this — no vaccine protects everybody — but the chances would have been somewhere between 60 and 90 per cent that the child would have been brought through his infection with, at worst, a brief illness, and more likely with no illness at all.

Inoculate All Children

Your doctor cannot tell you whether your child has been immunized naturally to paralytic polio through previous "silent infections." There is no simple, practical test he can make in his office. That is why every child should have the protection of the Salk vaccine — and for that matter why every young adult should have it too as soon as enough vaccine is available.

The vaccine achieves pretty much the same preventive effect, artificially, that an actual polio infection does naturally; that is, it sets in motion the human chemistry which produces protective antibodies. Unlike gamma globulin, it does not introduce antibodies, ready-made, into the blood stream in given, limited supply. Rather, it is a miniature Point 4 Program — helping the body to help itself.

LA BOHEME AT HERSHEY FRIDAY

"La Boheme" which comes to the stage of the Hershey Community Theatre for a single performance Friday at 8:15 o'clock will be presented in English. This is not the first opera to be done in English at Hershey. Last year the New York City Opera Company offered "Figaro," and adaptation from the original by Ruth Martin who has also translated "La Boheme."

This opera is presented by Charles L. Wagner with a company of 70 and a symphony orchestra under the direction of Thomas L. Martin. The cast for "La Boheme" will include Louise Alexander as "Mimi" whose background includes opera work, many concerts and much oratorio singing throughout the South.

Irene Cummings who will do "Musetta" is a native Californian where she was soloist with the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera Company having appeared in more than 60 roles and on the West Coast had the lead in "Carosol" for a summer. John Charles Thomas selected her as one of his private students.

"Rudolph" will be sung by Robert Barry, a graduate from the Katherine Long Opera School in New York City and with a Bachelor of Music Degree from the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Florida. In opera he has been heard in the past in "La Traviata," "Manon" and has done "La Boheme" before.

SOCIETY GIRLS HELP MAINTAIN NEW MILK BANK

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

CHICAGO (AP)—Society girls of the Junior League are running one of the nation's most unusual milk routes, the American Academy of Pediatrics was told today.

Junior Leagues of suburban Evanston cruise around in automobiles, pick up "spare" breast milk from nursing mothers at their homes and deliver it to a hospital "milk bank" to aid premature babies.

Dr. E. Robbins Kimball of Evanston Hospital told the academy that two years' experience with the "premature babies milk bank" at that hospital "has already proved that it is both beneficial and practicable to have every premature and 'problem' infant receive breast milk during his hospital stay, regardless of his mother's ability to supply his needs."

Mothers who donate milk for the bank "pump" it themselves in their homes, using an electrical breast pump (furnished by the Junior League). The society girls, offering to help in running the milk bank, purchased 22 electric pumps at a cost of $120 each—and they keep them in busy operation. They also teach mothers to bottle the milk and refrigerate it.

On the "local Evanston milk route, milk is picked up daily in liquid form and used for routine feeding at the premature nursery. On the "suburban" route — covering 10 communities near Evanston — milk is picked up twice weekly in the frozen condition. This milk is banked until needed for emergency use, when it is thawed, sterilized and distributed.

Dr. Kimball said there are six other known "milk banks" in the United States "but the Evanston milk bank is the only one in America that is absolutely free." There is no charge by the donating mothers and that Los Angeles, Newark, N.J., and Wilmington, Del., charge for the administered milk if the patient is able to pay. San Francisco, Boston and Chicago report that they give the milk free, he said.

Recollections

"Apparently because of the large number of people on the square." "Groups of young people were walking about singing patriotic songs." Then a group of college students asked if they might serenade the President. Bigham said he asked the President and Lincoln said, "I am interested in college boys. Let them sing." The youths sang, "We Are Coming Father Abraham, 300,000 Strong." Lincoln thanked them and returned to his room.

Bigham was later relieved by Pvt. James Robert, son of the Adams County sheriff in 1863, and left the White House. Bigham's brother, Rush Bigham, was on guard at the lower door to the house during the period Sgt. Bigham was on duty at the President's door.

Describes Parade
Bigham told of a reception held in Judge Willis House for President Lincoln on the afternoon of November 19, during which "hundreds of people" visited the President.

Following Mr. Young's talk, Historical Society President Charles Diller recalled that the presidential reception was well remembered in the Diller family. Mr. Diller's grandfather attended the reception — and "had his pocket picked there."

Boy's Corpse Missing From Grave; Dad Lost

TELLURIDE, Colo. (AP)—The body of an infant boy taken from a wilderness grave sent armed possesmen Tuesday in search of the child's father, described as a former mental patient.

Sheriff Lawrence G. Warrick said the man, Orville Thomas Bell, 26, held his wife prisoner for three weeks before she escaped and told officers of her son's death.

Mrs. Emma Bell, 19, led officers to the shallow grave of the 41-day-old infant yesterday.

She said her husband, a sheepherder, became enraged because the baby was crying. She said Bell struck the child, then smothered him with blankets and forced the young mother to carry the body to a remote canyon northwest of here, where they buried it.

Russian Musician Wins U.S. Plaudits

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pianist Emil Gilels, 39, the first Russian musician to visit this country in six years, won immediate acclaim Monday night in his debut at Philadelphia's Academy of Music.

Gilels, performing Tchaikovsky's Concerto No. 1 in B Flat Minor with conductor Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra, completely captured his audience and drew high praise from the critics.

He is on a month-long tour of American cities.

Emergency Crews Clear Rail Tracks

NEW MARKET, N. J. (AP)—Overnight emergency crew work restored emergency service Tuesday to the Lenix Valley Railroad main line which had been blocked for 16 hours by the collision of two freight trains.

Five railroad men were injured in yesterday's late afternoon crash, but none was in serious condition. A New York to Buffalo train was rerouted this morning before the tracks had been repaired.

Brazil Falter In Hot Election; Results Dim

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Election boards began counting the ballots Tuesday in Brazil's hottest presidential election in years.

Early returns were still too fragmentary to indicate a national trend in yesterday's voting, in which the late President Getulio Vargas was still a prime issue 14 months after his suicide. Final returns were not expected for 10 days or two weeks.

Many observers expected final results to be so cloudy that a court battle would have to determine the count.

FRISCO TYCOON DIES MONDAY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—George T. Cameron, who started his career as a newspaper carrier boy and was publisher of the San Francisco Chronicle 30 years, died Monday. He was 82.

Cameron had returned to an active role in direction of the Chronicle after recovering from a series of operations six years ago. He was stricken by a heart attack as his car arrived outside the Chronicle building. He died an hour later in St. Luke's Hospital.

A requiem High Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. tomorrow at St. Catherine of Siena Church in Burlingame.

Also in 1908 he married Helen de Young, whose father, M. H. de Young, founded the Chronicle. De Young's will specified that Cameron become the paper's publisher. Cameron was a leader in the planning of the Golden Gate and the San Francisco-Oakland bridges across San Francisco Bay.

He is survived by his widow, Helen, and two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Oliver Tobin and Mrs. Nion Tucker. His nephew Charles de Young Thieriot, was named the Chronicle's assistant publisher three years ago.

THREE KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

UNION CITY, Okla. (AP)—A twin-engine private plane crashed in flames three miles north of here Monday night, killing at least three persons, apparently including the chairman of the Great Lakes Carbon Corp. and his wife.

Company officials in New York said the plane, belonging to the firm, took off yesterday from New York's Laguardia Airport with Mr. and Mrs. George Skakel Sr. of Greenwich, Conn. It was bound for Los Angeles.

Also aboard at that time were the pilot, Joe Warren Whitney, 34, Stratford, Conn., and John E. McBride, 31, the copilot. Company records listed McBride's home as Stratford.

Only three bodies were recovered immediately from the plane wreckage. They were tentatively identified as those of Skakel and Whitney. The third victim was a woman.

What happened to the copilot remained a mystery.

Many observers expected final results to be so cloudy that a court battle would have to determine the count.

Brooklyn Manager Predicts Dodgers Will Be In World Series Next Year; Stronger

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Their long-cherished dream finally a reality, the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers loomed today as the team which will represent the National League in the 1956 World Series.

Walton Alston, first of 20 managers dating back to 1890 to lead the Brooklyn club to a world title, modestly predicted his team would be even stronger next year than the one which whipped the New York Yankees in the series 4 games to 3.

"Improved pitching will make us stronger," the tall, taciturn former Ohio schoolteacher said during a lull in the Dodgers' riotous victory celebration after their 2-0 triumph in the final game.

"Johnny Podres (who was so superb in his two victories over the Yankees) should develop into one of the game's greatest pitchers," Alston said. "He has all the stuff to make a great one and he may come into his own next year. Those world series victories should give him the necessary confidence."

Four Other Youngsters

"Then we have Karl Spooner, Roger Craig, Don Bessent and Sandy Koufax. All are young, strong and have shown tremendous promise. And remember, we still have our reliable such as Don Newcombe, Carl Erskine, Billy Loes, Clem Labine and others."

Alston did not mention such stand-out stickmen as Duke Snider, Roy Campanella, Gil Hodges and Carl Furillo. All undoubtedly will be at the old stand next year, including the aging but still brilliant Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson. Junior Gilliam, Sandy Amoros, Don Hoak and Don Zimmer, representing the younger element, all figure prominently in the Dodgers' future plans.

There's no denying that all figured prominently in the great Dodger victory of 1955 climaxed by the pulse-pounding triumph at Yankee Stadium before 63,465 spectators.

Their "Finest Hour"

Even the staunchest American League die-hards could not begrudge Brooklyn's finest hour as they watched the 23-year-old Podres become the first Brooklyn pitcher to win two games in a World Series. They saw the Dodgers make maximum use of their five hits and marveled at the brilliant Brooklyn defense that five times turned the Yankees back when it appeared they were about to break through.

At the finish, when Reese, the stonewall shortstop, threw out Elston Howard, the big park rocked with human emotion as the entire Dodger team raced out on the field to embrace the gritty young southpaw.

MORE

In one blazing, thrill-packed afternoon, after four decades of trying, a Dodger team finally succeeded in winning a world title, and they won it from a team which had humiliated them in five previous series.

Never before had a team won a seven-game series after dropping the first two games. Another record that brought joy to the victors was the total net receipts of $2,367,515.34, making it the richest World Series ever.

Brooklyn had to beat Tommy Byrne, the veteran southpaw who had given them a lot of trouble. They managed to drive him from the box in the sixth inning with the help of an error after scoring both runs off him.

Costly Yankee Errors

Podres, who bats from Withersbee, N.Y., and Byrne, a resident of Wake Forest, N.C., dueling on even terms for three innings but in the fourth, Campanella crashed a double to left and scored on a two-out single by Gil Hodges.

A costly error by Yankee first baseman Bill Skowron in the sixth paved the way for the insurance run. It forced the withdrawal of Byrne although he had given up only three hits.

Reese led off with a single. Snider sacrificed, but was safe at first when Skowron took Byrne's throw wide of the bag and dropped the ball as he made a swipe at the Duke. After Campanella had moved the runners along with another sacrifice bunt, Yankee Manager Casey Stengel allowed Byrne to give Furillo an intentional pass before taking him out. Bob Grim took over on the mound and served a long sacrifice fly to Hodges, who thus drove in both Dodger runs.

First Stengel Defeat

It was a frustrating, fruitless afternoon for the Yankees and Stengel, who, in six World Series as a manager, went down to defeat for the first time. In every inning but the first and ninth the Yankees had threats going but could not break through.

The play of the game came in the sixth. The Yankees had runners on first and second with nobody out when catcher Yogi Berra came up. Billy Martin had opened with a walk and had gone to second on Gil McDougald's surprise bunt single.

Berra lashed at an outside fast ball and sent it soaring into the left field corner. It looked like a certain hit, possibly a ground-rule one-bounce double into the stands. Amoros, who had replaced Gilliam in left at the start of the inning when Junior moved in to play center base, was far over in left second for the left-handed hitting Berra.

Flashing a burst of speed, the little Latin-American outfielder caught up with the ball and caught it with an outstretched glove, about a foot or two from the stands. Then he whirled and pegged to Reese, who threw to Hodges. McDougald, who had rounded second, was doubled up at first. After that, Hank Bauer grounded out and nearly everybody in the park could sense that the Dodgers would not be denied their greatest hour.

Podres finished in a blaze of glory, getting right-handed hitters Skowron, Cerv and Howard in order to end the game.

WANTS TO PLAY ONE MORE YEAR

NEW YORK (AP)—Jackie Robinson, generally recognized as baseball's greatest current competitor, said today he wants to play one more year with the Brooklyn Dodgers so he can realize his dream of rounding out a 10-year career in the major leagues.

The versatile veteran, still a dangerous batter and spectacular base runner despite the wear and tear of nearly 37 years, thinks he can be useful to the Dodgers "for at least another year. He expected the Brooks to win the pennant again in 1956 and is anxious to play on another world championship club."

"I would love to play another year," he said yesterday during a lull in the clubhouse celebration proceedings after the Dodgers' World Series triumph over the Yankees. "It's up to the ball club, whatever they decide. If they want me, I'll play—but not for nothing."

"I feel that even though I didn't have one of my best years, I still have a little bit of good baseball left in me. As I said, I want to play provided they don't cut me to death. I am going to talk to Buzzie Bavasi (Dodger vice president) tonight or tomorrow. I want to get this thing straightened out as soon as possible."

Stan Baumgartner, Reporter, Expires

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Stan Baumgartner, 60, veteran baseball writer for the Philadelphia Inquirer and a former major league pitcher, died at his home yesterday.

A native of Houston, ex. Baumgartner was a star in baseball, football and basketball at the University of Chicago before he left in his junior year to pitch for the Philadelphia Phillies of the National League in 1916.

A southpaw, he pitched for the Phillies again in 1917, 1921 and 1922 then went to the minors. He returned with the Philadelphia Athletics of the American League in 1924 when he won 13 and lost 6, his best year.

PODRES CLAIMS HE CAN DEFEAT YANKEES 7 OF 8

NEW YORK (AP)—Hero of the 1955 World Series is a brash, 23-year-old miner's son who holds Yankee baseball power and prestige in a disdain bordering on contempt. "I think I can whip 'em seven times out of eight," Johnny Podres said yesterday after he had pitched the Brooklyn Dodgers to a seventh-game 2-0 victory which brought Flatbush its first world championship.

It was Podres who stopped Casey Stengel's naughty New Yorkers in the third game 8-3 after the Yankees had won the first two games. It was Podres who clinched the series yesterday with a crafty eight-hitter, cowing the big Yankee bats in the clutch.

"I never once doubted I could take 'em," the young left-hander from Withersbee, N.Y., said. "Sure, I was in a tight spot once in a while. But all I had to do was beat 'em."

8 Yanks Stranded

The Yankees left eight men on base as Podres whistled his last ones past the ears of powerhouses Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer and Mickey Mantle, the latter in a pinch-hit role, and teased them with curves and change-ups.

With two men on base in the eighth and only one out, Podres made Berra fly out to right field and Bauer swing for a third strike on a bad pitch—high and outside.

If the odds were long that the Dodgers could come back after dropping the first two games and take the series—a feat no team ever accomplished in a seven-game set—they were even longer that the main part of the job could be turned in by the hard-luck southpaw who finished the season with a lack-luster 9-10 mark.

Has Back Ailment

Plagued by a chronic back ailment for years, he hadn't completed a pitching assignment from June 14 until the end of the campaign. He started 13 games in that span, was knocked to the showers in all.

He seemed completely unawed by all the attention suddenly lavished upon him.

"You're a hero now," a teammate yelled at him. "You're the talk of the country. They'll be after you for television appearances and speeches."

"Okay, for a thousand bucks a throw," Podres said, displaying a familiar mercenary touch. Agents swarmed around Johnny's locker, trying to get his signature on contracts for TV appearances and endorsements.

"Not now, fellows," Podres said. "I'm dead tired and too confused to think. There's nothing I'd like more now than to go to sleep and then tomorrow go fishing."

BROOKLYN IS SITE OF WILD CELEBRATIONS

BROOKLYN (AP)—Brooklyn was a different place today and hordes of its nearly three million inhabitants went happily and noisily crazy to celebrate the change.

Years of disappointment for the baseball fans had produced a special, ever-hopeful loyalty to "dem Bums," the Brooklyn Dodgers. It was a belligerent, complaining kind of loyalty that became a hallmark of the Brooklyn character.

With the Dodgers now world champions, no longer is there occasion for complaints or need for belligerency.

The celebration began with the final out that clinched the Dodgers' victory over the Yankees in the seventh game of the series.

The hero of the day was Dodger pitcher Johnny Podres, who shut out the Yankees 2-0. By evening, placards boasting "Podres for mayor" had blossomed.

Squad Holds Dinner

The pitcher and his teammates, with their wives and a few selected guests, had a victory dinner at the Bossert Hotel on Brooklyn Heights. To keep jostling fans from crushing their heroes, police held the crowds behind barriers for two blocks surrounding the hotel.

Even with these precautions, Podres barely got into the hotel without being swamped by a surging crowd that threatened to break through police lines. The crowd stuck around for hours.

One bartender started things off with a free keg of beer. A hot dog stand was mobbed when it announced that eats were on the house in honor of the occasion.

As high-spirited crowds grew, a lady caught in the turmoil near Borough Hall was heard to gasp: "This is terrible. But I'm sure it's going to be worse in Flatbush."

Stengel Wants To Continue On Job

NEW YORK (AP)—Casey Stengel wants to keep on managing the New York Yankees in 1956—"unless they fire me."

As old Case has a contract running through next year, and rates ace high with the owners, he appears a cinch to return. Because Stengel became ill in mid season and had to miss the start of one western trip, there have been reports he might decide to call it a career.

Stengel hinted broadly he'll be back to try for a seventh pennant when he talked with reporters after yesterday's final World Series game.

PUNISHED BACK REJOINS TEAM

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Mike Zeigler, bearing a royal reprieve, whipped back into the Army backfield today—just in time to bolster the Cadets' thin but powerful offense for Saturday's game with Michigan, the No. 2 college football team in the nation.

Zeigler will be making his first appearance of the season in the game against the Wolverines after sitting out the first two games because of disciplinary punishment.

Only by request of visiting royalty or government executives can a West Point cadet escape disciplinary tours and yesterday Prince Albert of Belgium provided the fairy godmother touch. His request for "amnesty" was granted by Lt. Gen. Blackshear Bryan, academy superintendent, freeing 51 cadets from existing disciplinary action.

Ironically, it was the Navy department which invited Prince Albert to this country. Navy, of course, is the reigning champ of eastern collegiate football and Army's prime target.

There was no announcement concerning the reason for the disciplinary action.

AMOROS MAKES SPECTACULAR CATCH

Dodgers' left fielder Sandy Amoros makes a spectacular gloved hand catch of bid for extra base blow by Yankee catcher Yogi Berra in sixth inning of seventh World Series game at New York's Yankee Stadium, Tuesday. There were two men on base at the time and Sandy, after racing into left field corner, got ball over to first to double Gil McDougald. Dodgers won 2-0 to take the Series. (AP Wirephoto)

PINCH HITTER SET STAGE FOR "CATCH OF GAME"

By TED SMITS

NEW YORK (AP)—By an irony of baseball, a pinch hitter who grounded out set the stage for the key play of the 1955 World Series. The pinch hitter was George Shuba, who batted for Brooklyn Dodger second baseman Don Zimmer in the sixth inning with the bases loaded. He dribbled to Moose Skowron, who tossed in time to pitcher Bob Grim covering first and the side was retired.

This meant that Junior Gilliam came in from left field to play second base, and Sandy Amoros, the fleet Cuban, took his place.

In the bottom of the sixth, Billy Martin led off by working Johnny Podres for a walk. Gil McDougald dropped a bunt down the first base line and beat it out.

Berra Crosses Dodgers

With Brooklyn leading by the scant margin of 2-0, nobody out, two men on base and the series' heaviest hitter, Yogi Berra, at bat, the Dodger bullpen sprang into action and the atmosphere of Yankee Stadium became tense.

Berra is a left-handed batter, so the Dodger outfield shifted far to the right, which is sound strategy. Then Yogi sliced a high one into the far left corner of the stadium. It looked like a double, bringing two runs across the plate. But Amoros raced at top speed, his gloved right hand extended. Here again fate favored the Dodgers, for Amoros is a left-handed thrower. Gilliam, whom he replaced, is right handed.

Double Play

Amoros caught the ball on the tip of glove, wheeled and rifled a throw to Pee Wee Reese, who executed a quick relay to Gil Hodges at first base, and McDougald was doubled—the 12th Dodger double play of the series, a new series record.

Baseball men agreed afterwards that Gilliam could never have made the catch, for he lacks Amoros' speed, and even if he could have gotten near the ball he would be at a disadvantage because he would need to cross his gloved hand over.

Thus the great pitching job by Podres might have been lost, and the Dodgers might have failed for the eighth straight time in their quest of the world championship of baseball. Instead they won the deciding seventh game, 2-0.

The Canner schedule follows: December 16, Hanover, home, exhibition; January 6, Carlisle, away; 14, Bowling Springs, away; 19, Central Dauphin, home; 26, Susquehanna Twp., away; February 2, Big Springs, home; 8, Mechanicsburg, away; 16, Shippensburg, home.

The season will be climaxed by a wrestling tournament at Shippensburg on February 24 and 25.

any action against Zeigler, but it was a heavy blow to coach Earl (Red) Blaik's forces. Subsequent injuries jarred the Cadet backfield even more—although Army still managed to "limp" through its first two games.

The Cadets, ranked No. 6 in this week's Associated Press Poll, trounced Furman 81-0 and Penn State 35-6.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

NEW YORK—Neji ($3.70) won the Brook Steeplechase Handicap at Belmont Park.

BOSTON—Switch On ($18) captured the Puritan Handicap at Suffolk Downs.

Highly pleased with his team's decisive 27-6 victory over Bucknell in the season opener, Gettysburg College coach John Yovicsin is preparing the Bulls for Saturday night's clash with Albright in the fifth annual Reading, Pretzel Bowl game. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

Against Albright the Bulls hope to step up an offense that ground out 235 yards rushing and another 128 passing as they beat the Bisons for the second time in the past three years. Yovicsin will stress pass defense this week, because the Lions, although defeated twice, have passed to advantage against both Muhlenberg and Bucknell.

Yovicsin has named a starting backfield of quarterback Frank Gagliardi, halfbacks Dave Lichtenfeld and Bruce Pieper, and fullback Frank Capitani to work against Albright. Capitani, a 170-pound sophomore from Hershey, was the big surprise against Bucknell in scoring three touchdowns on runs of 34, 24 and 42 yards and gaining 100 yards rushing in 16 carries for a 6.8 average. Gagliardi, Long Branch, N. J. senior, continued his brilliant play of former seasons by completing four of seven passes good for 120 yards and a touchdown.

The rest of Gettysburg's starting lineup for the 16th meeting with Albright will be ends Bill Ward and Dick Lewandowski, tackles Frank Eckert and Al Kempton, guards Jerry Harrell and Barry Attig, and center Sheldon Yagel. The Gettysburg-Albright series started in 1913, with Gettysburg way ahead in wins, nine to two. Four contests ended in ties.

Substitute Boxer In TV Bout Tonight

By JOE REICHLER

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP)—Eddie Chavez of San Jose, Calif., meets Glenn Flanagan, a substitute from St. Paul, Minn., tonight in a 10-round lightweight bout which will be televised nationally.

Flanagan has lost only 14 of 100 bouts. He is appearing for Cisco Andrade, a Compton, Calif., boxer who suffered a throat infection.

Chavez, who has a record of 52 victories, 8 losses and 3 draws, outpointed Flanagan four years ago. This will be the first outing for Chavez since he was knocked out by Andrade last August in six rounds at San Jose.

The bout will be carried by ABC-TV starting at 10 p.m., EDT.

LIONS STRESS PASS DEFENSE FOR BULLETS

READING — A leaky pass defense cost Albright College a 26-13 defeat at the hands of Muhlenberg College, a traditional football rival, last Saturday. The Mules scored three touchdowns via the aerial route.

As a result, the Lions hope to remedy this situation, and work on defense as they prepare for the pretzel Bowl contest with Gettysburg College scheduled Saturday night at 8 o'clock at Albright Stadium.

Gettysburg opened with a 27-6 win over Bucknell which previously defeated Albright, 25-14.

Although the Lions lost their first two starts, they showed an offense that produced four touchdowns. One came on a 94-yard touchdown run by Roy Dragon, senior quarterback from Roselle Park, N. J. Dragon took the second-half kickoff in the Muhlenberg game and went all the way for the score.

Dragon's forward pass to George Flynn, Glassboro, N. J., a reserve end, accounted for Albright's second touchdown in the contest.

May Take To Air Albright, a decided underdog in the game ahead with Gettysburg, may bank on forward passes against the Bulls. Thus far, the Lions' best effort on the ground was a sustained march for a six-pointer against Bucknell. But it was a Dragon forward pass that netted the touchdown.

Coach John Potoskan has used every available Albright player in the first two games. Halfback Willie Smith, Pleasantville, N. J., leads the Lions in rushing with 67 yards in 16 carries. He lost 27 yards in 18 carries. He lost 27 yards in 18 carries.

only two yards in the two contests. Dragon has completed 15 of 27 aeriels for 186 yards.

Brooklyn Manager Predicts Dodgers Will Be In World Series Next Year; Stronger

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Their long-cherished dream finally a reality, the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers loomed today as the team which will represent the National League in the 1956 World Series.

Walton Alston, first of 20 managers dating back to 1890 to lead the Brooklyn club to a world title, modestly predicted his team would be even stronger next year than the one which whipped the New York Yankees in the series 4 games to 3.

"Improved pitching will make us stronger," the tall, taciturn former Ohio schoolteacher said during a lull in the Dodgers' riotous victory celebration after their 2-0 triumph in the final game.

"Johnny Podres (who was so superb in his two victories over the Yankees) should develop into one of the game's greatest pitchers," Alston said. "He has all the stuff to make a great one and he may come into his own next year. Those world series victories should give him the necessary confidence."

Four Other Youngsters

"Then we have Karl Spooner, Roger Craig, Don Bessent and Sandy Koufax. All are young, strong and have shown tremendous promise. And remember, we still have our reliable stars as Don Newcombe, Carl Erskine, Billy Loes, Clem Labine and others."

Alston did not mention such standout stickmen as Duke Snider, Roy Campanella, Gil Hodges and Carl Furillo. All undoubtedly will be at the old stand next year, including the aging but still brilliant Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson. Junior Gilliam, Sandy Amoros, Don Hoak and Don Zimmer, representing the younger element, all figure prominently in the Dodgers' future plans.

There's no denying that all figured prominently in the great Dodger victory of 1955 climaxed by the pulse-pounding triumph at Yankee Stadium before 62,465 spectators.

Their "Finest Hour"

Even the staunchest American League die-hard could not begrudge Brooklyn's finest hour as they watched the 23-year-old Podres become the first Brooklyn pitcher to win two games in a World Series. By TED SMITS
NEW YORK (AP)—By an irony of baseball, a pinch hitter who grounded out set the stage for the key play of the 1955 World Series.

The pinch hitter was George Shuba, who batted for Brooklyn Dodger second baseman Don Zimmer in the sixth inning with the bases loaded. He dribbled to Moose Skowron, who tossed in time to pitcher Bob Grim covering first and the side was retired.

This meant that Junior Gilliam came in from left field to play second base, and Sandy Amoros, the fleet Cuban, took his place.

In the bottom of the sixth, Billy Martin led off by working Johnny Podres for a walk. Gil McDougald dropped a bunt down the first base line and beat it out.

Berra Crosses Dodgers

With Brooklyn leading by the scant margin of 2-0, nobody out, two men on base and the series' heaviest hitter, Yogi Berra, at bat, the Dodger bullpen sprang into action and the atmosphere of Yankee Stadium became tense.

Berra is a left-handed batter, so the Dodger outfield shifted far to the right, which is sound strategy.

Then Yogi sliced a high one into the far left corner of the stadium. It looked like a double, bringing two runs across the plate. But Amoros raced at top speed, his gloved right hand extended. Here again fate favored the Dodgers, for Amoros is a left-handed thrower. Gilliam, whom he replaced, is right handed.

Double Play

Amoros caught the ball on the tip of glove, wheeled and rifled a throw to Pee Wee Reese, who executed a quick relay to Gil Hodges at first base, and McDougald was doubled—the 12th Dodger double play of the series, a new series record.

Baseball men agreed afterwards that Gilliam could never have made the catch, for he lacks Amoros' speed, and even if he could have gotten near the ball he would be at a disadvantage because he would need to cross his gloved hand over.

Thus the great pitching job by Podres might have been lost, and the Dodgers might have failed for the eighth straight time in their quest of the world championship of baseball. Instead they won the deciding seventh game, 2-0.

BULLETS PRIME FOR ALBRIGHT TILT SATURDAY

Highly pleased with his team's decisive 2-6 victory over Bucknell in the season opener, Gettysburg College coach John Yovicsin is preparing the Bullets for Saturday night's clash with Albright in the fifth annual Reading, Pretzel Bowl game. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

Against Albright the Bullets hope to step up an offense that ground out 235 yards rushing and another 128 passing as they beat the Bisons for the second time in the past three years. Yovicsin will stress pass defense this week, because the Lions, although defeated twice, have passed to advantage against both Muhlenberg and Bucknell.

Yovicsin has named a starting backfield of quarterback Frank Gagliardi, halfbacks Dave Lichtenfeld and Bruce Pieper, and fullback Frank Capitani to work against Albright. Capitani, a 170-pound sophomore from Hershey, was the big surprise against Bucknell in scoring three touchdowns on runs of 34, 24 and 42 yards and gaining 108 yards rushing in 16 carries for a 6.8 average. Gagliardi, Long Branch, N. J. senior, continued his brilliant play of former seasons by completing four of seven passes good for 120 yards and a touchdown.

The rest of Gettysburg's starting lineup for the 16th meeting with Albright will be ends Bill Ward and Dick Lewandowski, tackles Frank Eckert and Al Kempton, guards Jerry Harrell and Barry Atig, and center Sheldon Yingst. The Gettysburg-Albright series started in 1913, with Gettysburg way ahead in wins, nine to two. Four contests ended in ties.

Substitute Boxer In TV Bout Tonight

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP)—Eddie Chavez of San Jose, Calif., meets Glenn Flanagan, a substitute from St. Paul, Minn., tonight in a 10-round lightweight bout which will be televised nationally.

Flanagan has lost only 14 of 100 bouts. He is appearing for Cisco Andrade, a Compton, Calif., boxer who suffered a throat infection.

Chavez, who has a record of 52 victories, 8 losses and 3 draws, outpointed Flanagan four years ago. This will be the first outing for Chavez since he was knocked out by Andrade last August in six rounds at San Jose.

The bout will be carried by ABC-TV starting at 10 p.m., EDT.

LIONS STRESS PASS DEFENSE FOR BULLETS

READING — A leaky pass defense cost Albright College a 26-13 defeat at the hands of Muhlenberg College, a traditional football rival, last Saturday. The Mules scored three touchdowns via the aerial route.

As a result, the Lions hope to remedy this situation, and work on defense as they prepare for the pretzel Bowl contest with Gettysburg College scheduled Saturday night at 8 o'clock at Albright Stadium.

Gettysburg opened with a 27-6 win over Bucknell which previously downed Albright, 25-14.

Although the Lions lost their first two starts, they showed an offense that produced four touchdowns. One came on a 94-yard touchdown run by Roy Dragon, senior quarterback from Roselle, Park, N. J. Dragon took the second-half kickoff in the Muhlenberg game and went all the way for the score.

Dragon's forward pass to George Flynn, Glassboro, N. J., a reserve end, accounted for Albright's second touchdown in the contest.

May Take To Air

Albright, a decided underdog in the game ahead with Gettysburg, may bank on forward passes against the Bullets. Thus far, the Lions' best effort on the ground was a sustained march for a six-pointer against Bucknell. But it was a Dragon forward pass that netted the touchdown.

Coach John Potoklan has used every available Albright player in the first two games. Halfback Willie Smith, Pleasantville, N. J., leads the Lions in rushing with 51 of net 73 yards in 16 carries. He lost

Home games for the Gettysburg Senior and Junior High School football squads feature this week's program as the Littlestown, Biglerville and Delone varsities all invade foreign grids.

Mechanicsburg, led by Bud Kohlhaas, All-State center last year, will come here Friday evening to tangle with the Warriors in a South Penn Conference game.

The Wildcats gave unbeaten Hanover a terrific battle before bowing 21-18 but last week barely squeezed past Shippensburg 12-6. Gettysburg and Shippensburg battled to a 13-13 tie here two weeks ago. All of which indicates a close game this week.

Ned Brownley's Junior High put-fit, losers at Delone last week, will meet Washington Township on the local field Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

Tonight the Biglerville Junior High squad makes its debut by engaging the seventh and eighth grade gridders at Hanover at 7:30 o'clock.

Delone's Junior High will meet York Catholic at McSherrystown Thursday at 7 p.m. The Delone junior varsity will play at Hanover in the afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Alex Bell's Squire varsity will seek its fourth straight Friday night when it goes against Westminster on the Owis' field.

Unbeaten Littlestown Invades Dallastown for a Laurel Conference game Saturday afternoon while Biglerville opens its conference season against West York on the Bulldogs' gridiron, also Saturday afternoon.

Secretary of Revenue Gerald A. Gleason today urged all Pennsylvania hunters who want to shoot deer with bow and arrow this fall to mail their application for a special archery license to the Department of Revenue immediately.

The season for archery hunting opens next Monday and will continue through Oct. 22. Applications for the special licenses can be obtained from the local agents of the Revenue Department.

The Department estimates that 17,000 archery deer hunters will participate in the 12-day season this year although only 10,000 applications have been received so far. Last year 14,885 persons applied for archery licenses.

The fee for the special license is $2 for residents and non-residents, and is valid only with a 1955 hunting license. Applications for the special archery license should be mailed to room 304, Finance Building, Harrisburg.

The Gettysburg furniture factories are also operating under a more than normal basis. The plant is operating at capacity during the day and is also operating several nights a week.

Today's Talk

THE HIDDEN SECRET

Few of us ever realize the power we have over others. There is a hidden secret within us all that gives us this power, unknown to us. Circumstances, opportunity, or perhaps just through chance, this power is suddenly brought to fruition. When this happens something is revealed to us, like the joy and happiness when we have made someone else happy.

I have been much interested in the Bill Graham meeting that have been so greatly publicized. We heard him on the radio and were convinced of his sincerity. But we thought of him as we have of many evangelists. Not until after he had attracted the great crowds in Europe, and revealed his power over mammoth gatherings did we realize the tremendous influence he had over people. He seemed to have discovered himself in the message that he delivered.

Perhaps, that is the hidden secret, after all — discovering oneself, thus becoming a power for good over others. It is "that something" that makes one salesman effective above another. It is something to thank God for, anyway, for we never get genuine happiness until we begin to spread it and affect the lives of others through our influence.

Through the power of prayer many discover this hidden secret within them, and often it makes healers of them, for they become largely selfless. The late Dr. George Washington Carver attributed to prayer his remarkable discoveries. I have a little book in which it is stated that "he talked with flowers" and he once told a friend of mine that he could pick out the ones in his audience, when he talked, that were spiritually minded.

Charles A. Lindbergh, in the introduction to a remarkable little book, "The Voyage to Lourdes," by Dr. Alexis Carrel, said this: "Carrel's greatest interest lay in man. He used man as a path to God. He had confidence in the application of science to the life of modern man." Few great scientists have believed in the power of prayer as did Dr. Carrel. His life was a discovery of the hidden secret.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Timeless Values" Protected, 1955, George Mathew Adams Service

Once again the banquet season. And the usual feast of reason. With the fruit cups and the salads. And the singers with their ballads. And the introductions later. Of the lesser and the greater.

Soon again the old commanding: "Take a bow, and then stand." For applause we're not allowing. Until all have finished bowing. Then the wires and letters pleasant. From the one who are not present.

Then the sound of voices clearing. As the time to speak is nearing. Next the speeches grave or witty. Vote of thanks for the committee. Then, "Good night. For next year sign up." Last, the dreary check room lineup.

KNIGHT WANTS TO CONTROL 70 GOP DELEGATES

BY MORRIS LANDSBERG
SACRAMENTO, Calif., P.—Gov. Goodwin J. Knight said today he intends to head California's delegation to the 1956 Republican National Convention even if it means an open fight with Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

He reiterated that if President Eisenhower, his first choice, doesn't run, he will seek control of the state's important bloc of votes, himself as a favorite son, and only nominal candidate.

Knight, in an interview marking the start of his third year in office, made no attempt to hide his coolness toward Nixon.

He said he has heard rumors that the vice president's home-state supporters are planning to enter their own slate of delegates in the June California primary.

Eisenhower bows out of the race. California voters select convention delegates of both parties in a presidential primary election. The delegates must be pledged to a candidate who has given his written consent.

Will Ignore Nixon
Asked if a Nixon ticket would affect his plans for a Knight-pledged delegation, the governor replied, "Not in the slightest."

"We are going all the way regardless of what Mr. Nixon does," he said firmly.

Knight agreed the California delegation—second only, with 70 votes, to New York's 96 in 1952—would be vital to Nixon's presidential hopes but, he said:

"The Republicans of California will want to be represented by a completely independent delegation devoted to the Republican party and not to the ambitions of any one man."

He said he has heard no talk of a slate committed to Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.). Knight and Knowland have worked closely together on state party organization.

The governor said the California delegation would decide during the convention in San Francisco next year on the presidential nominee who would be best for the party.

Nixon Lunches With House Leader

WASHINGTON, P.—Vice President Nixon Tuesday arranged to lunch with Rep. Arends (Ill.), assistant Republican leader in the House.

Asked by reporters if he expected to discuss the politically-tough farm situation, Nixon declined to say specifically but commented "Arends has been through the farm belt."

Nixon said he will go to the White House this afternoon for a series of conferences with presidential aides preparing for meetings later this week of the National Security Council and the Cabinet.

Why Your Child Should Get Polio Vaccination
By HART E. VAN RIPER, M.D.
Medical Director National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis

(Editor's note: This is the second of a series of five articles on what parents should know about the Salk polio vaccine. Under Dr. Van Riper's direction the National Foundation sponsored the research development of the vaccine and he is in charge of the Foundation's program for vaccinating children in the first and second grades of school.)

The only way science has found to trigger this latent self-defense when nature has failed to do it is through the use of the virus itself — by introducing inactivated virus directly into the body. In a small minority of instances nothing happens; in most people the reaction to the presence of the virus is a quick emergency output of antibodies.

Three Types Of Virus
It would be easy enough to do this dangerously. Dr. Salk's job was to find a way to do it safely. It was complicated, moreover, by the fact that there are three types of the polio virus, any one of which can cause paralysis. Hence all three types had to be embodied in the vaccine.

Dr. Salk rendered the virus harmless to human beings by "killing" it with a solution of formaldehyde. By the Salk method it is inactivated so that it cannot cause paralysis, yet not so completely "dead" that it loses its effect on antibody production.

Thus what happens in a Salk vaccination may be described as in the nature of a sham battle, in which the human system is conditioned to defend itself against a harmless facsimile of the polio virus, and after which it remains armed and ready in case the real thing comes along.

As soon as Dr. Salk and his colleagues learn how long the effect of one course of Salk vaccine shots lasts, and when, if ever, further booster shots are needed, immunity to paralytic polio can be made lifelong. When the day of universal vaccination comes, at least three out of four of those persons who are now susceptible to paralysis will be forever safe from it. This means that almost all of America's children will be free of the threat, and their parents free of the fear.

"Apparently because of the large number of people on the square." "Groups of young people were walking about singing patriotic songs." Then a group of college students asked if they might serenade the President. Bigham said he asked the President and Lincoln asked, "I am interested in college boys. Let them sing." The youths sang, "We Are Coming Father Abraham, 300,000 Strong." Lincoln thanked them and returned to his room.

Bigham was later relieved by Pvt. James Robert, son of the Adams County sheriff in 1863, and left the White House. Bigham's brother, Rush Bigham, was on guard at the lower door to the house during the period Sgt. Bigham was on duty at the President's door.

Describes Parade
Bigham described the parade and the program in the cemetery, noting that Lincoln made only one gesture with his hand while delivering his speech but "nodded his head" on every sentence.

Bigham told of a reception held in Judge Willis House for President Lincoln on the afternoon of November 19, during which "hundreds of people" visited the President.

Following Mr. Young's talk, Historical Society President Charles Diller recalled that the presidential reception was well remembered.

SOCIETY GIRLS HELP MAINTAIN NEW MILK BANK

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

CHICAGO, P.—Society girls of the Junior League are running one of the nation's most unusual milk routes, the American Academy of Pediatrics was told today.

Junior Leagues of suburban Evanston cause a round of automobiles, pick up spare breast milk from nursing mothers at their homes and deliver it to a hospital "milk bank" to aid premature babies.

Dr. E. Roberts Kimball of Evanston Hospital told the academy that two years' experience with the "premature babies milk bank" at that hospital "has already proved that it is both beneficial and practicable to have every premature and 'problem infant' receive breast milk during his hospital stay, regardless of his mother's ability to supply his needs."

Mothers who donate milk for the bank "pump" it themselves in their homes, using an electrical breast pump furnished by the Junior League. The society girls, offering to help in running the milk bank, purchased 22 electric pumps at a cost of $120 each—and they keep them in busy operation. They also teach mothers to bottle the milk and refrigerate it.

On the "local Evanston milk route, milk is picked up daily in liquid form and used for routine feeding at the premature nursery. On the "suburban" route — covering 10 communities near Evanston — milk is picked up twice weekly in the frozen condition. This milk is banked until needed for emergency use, when it is thawed, sterilized and distributed.

Dr. Kimball said there are six other known "milk banks" in the United States "but the Evanston milk bank is the only one in America that is absolutely free." There is no charge by the donating mothers and that Los Angeles, Newark, N.J., and Wilmington, Del., charge for the administered milk if the patient is able to pay. San Francisco, Boston and Chicago report that they give the milk free, he said.

Boy's Corpse Missing From Grave; Dad Lost

TELLURIDE, Colo., P.—The body of an infant boy taken from a wilderness grave sent armed possemen Tuesday in search of the child's father, described as a former mental patient.

Sheriff Lawrence G. Warrick said the man, Orville Thomas, 26, held his wife prisoner for three weeks before she escaped and told officers of her son's death.

Mrs. Emma Bell, 19, led officers to the shallow grave of the 41-day-old infant yesterday.

She said her husband, a sheepherder, became enraged because he baby was crying. She said Bell struck the child, then smothered him with blankets and forced the young mother to carry the body to a remote canyon northwest of here, where they buried it.

Emergency Crews Clear Rail Tracks

NEW MARKET, N. J., P.—Overnight emergency crew work restored emergency service Tuesday to the Lehigh Valley Railroad main line which had been blocked for 16 hours by the collision of two freight trains.

Brazil Falters In Hot Election; Results Dim

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, P.—Election boards began counting the ballots Tuesday in Brazil's hottest presidential election in years.

Early returns were still too fragmentary to indicate a national trend in yesterday's voting, in which the late President Getulio Vargas was still a prime issue 14 months after his suicide. Final returns were not expected for 10 days or two weeks.

Many observers expected final results to be so cloudy that a court battle would have to determine the count.

FRISCO TYCOON DIES MONDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, P.—George T. Cameron, who started his career as a newspaper carrier, boy and was publisher of the San Francisco Chronicle 30 years, died Monday. He was 82.

Cameron had returned to an active role in direction of the Chronicle after recovering from a series of operations six years ago. He was stricken by a heart attack as his car arrived outside the Chronicle building. He died in a hour later in St. Luke's Hospital.

A requiem High Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. tomorrow at St. Catherine of Siena Church in Burlingame.

Also in 1908 he married Helen de Young, whose father, M. H. de Young, founded the Chronicle. De Young's will specified that Cameron become the paper's publisher.

Cameron was a leader in the planning of the Golden Gate and the San Francisco-Oakland bridges across San Francisco Bay. He is survived by his widow, Helen, and two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Oliver Tobin and Mrs. Nlon Tucker. His nephew Charles de Young, 45, is now the Chronicle's assistant publisher three years ago.

THREE KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

UNION CITY, Okla., P.—A twin-engine private plane crashed in flames three miles north of here Monday night, killing at least three persons, apparently including the chairman of the Great Lakes Carbon Corp. and his wife.

Company officials in New York said the plane, belonging to the firm, took off yesterday from New York's Laguardia Airport with Mr. and Mrs. George Skakel Sr. of Greenwich, Conn. It was bound for Los Angeles.

Also aboard at that time were the pilot, Joe Warren Whitney, 34, Stratford, Conn., and John E. McBride, 31, the copilot. Company records listed McBride's home as Stratford.

Only three bodies were recovered immediately from the plane wreckage. They were tentatively identified as those of Skakel and Whitney. The third victim was a woman.

What happened to the copilot remained a mystery.

Many observers expected final results to be so cloudy that a court battle would have to determine the count.

REBELS LAUNCH NEW ASSAULTS AGAINST FRENCH

RABAT, Morocco (P)—Reinforcements poured out of Fez toward the Spanish-Moroccan border Tuesday to put down a Berber rebellion which has driven the French from one post and threatens others.

The little post of Immouzer-des-Marmoucha, near the frontier of French and Spanish Morocco, was abandoned after 11 Europeans were killed in a surprise attack early Sunday.

About 60 rebels launched a new attack this morning against the French at Tafaralt, 40 miles from Oudja near the Algerian border. They were driven off.

The extent of the uprising was hard to measure. More than 1,500 rebels, many of the Spanish side of the frontier, took part.

The trouble was not confined to Morocco. Some of the rebels spilled over into Algeria where 292 were rounded up, part of a Berber tribe which lives on both sides of the French-Spanish Moroccan frontier.

The frontiers were set by European countries. The Berbers are aware of them only when they pass a frontier post only when they move about.

Disturbances increase in Algeria itself, fresh on the heels of the U. N. vote favoring a debate on the problem, disturbances seemed to be increasing. The water line into Philippeville was cut. Rebels attacked a police transport near Seddouk, killed a gendarme and wounded three others. A terrorist shot and wounded a police inspector and a constable in a theater at Akbou.

The French predicted the disturbances in Algeria after the U. N. Assembly voted to support the Asian-Arab request to discuss the Algerian question.

Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay, who led France's delegation out of the Assembly after the vote was taken, said it would only encourage the nationalist rebels. France considers Algeria a part of metropolitan France.

The troubles were so widespread they promised to test the capacity of France to handle them. Virtually all France's fighting forces are in North Africa, only a token force remaining in the French zone of Germany.

SENTENCED TO PRISON

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (P)—William Fashaw, 24, Philadelphia, was sentenced to serve seven to 14 years in prison Monday after pleading guilty to a general charge of killing Leslie Young, 32, also of Philadelphia, a fellow prisoner at Graterford Penitentiary.

Fashaw is now serving a three to six year sentence for robbery. He began that sentence on May 24, 1952. He begins serving the new sentence at the expiration of his current term.

N.Y. TIMES HEAD TO BE BURIED IN ARLINGTON

NEW YORK (P)—Maj. Gen. Julius Ochs Adler (ret.), who died of cancer Monday after distinguished careers in the newspaper and military fields, will be buried Thursday at Arlington National Cemetery with full honors.

Adler, 62, was first vice president and general manager of the New York Times and publisher and president of the Chattanooga (Tenn.) Times. He reached the rank of major general in the Army through intermittent service spanning two world wars.

Adler's body will lie in state at the 107th Infantry Armory in Manhattan from this afternoon until tomorrow morning. A funeral service will be held at Temple Emanuel in New York City Thursday morning, after which the body will be taken to Washington for burial at Arlington.

Among numerous messages of tribute to Adler were two from the Summer White House at Denver, Colo.

Acting for President Eisenhower, recovering from a heart attack, Press Secretary James C. Hagerty sent a telegram to Mrs. Adler saying he had personal knowledge of the "high esteem" the President had for Adler. The message praised Adler's "great contributions to his country as a citizen, soldier and as a newspaperman."

Sherman Adams, the assistant to the President, also wired from Denver, extending sympathies and praising Adler as "a fine friend and a loyal helpful public servant."

Seek Increase In Class Three Milk

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (P)—The Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Assn. Monday petitioned the U. S. Agriculture Secretary to call a hearing to consider Eastern's proposal that 20 cents per hundredweight be added to the farm price of Class 3 milk produced for the New York city area.

Class 3 milk is that used in manufactured products. It brings the lowest return to farmers of any class of milk and is averaged with other prices in figuring the uniform price which farmers actually receive for all their milk. The latest Class 3 price for August was $2.68.

Legion "Disowns" Freedom Group

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (P)—The Executive Committee of the Illinois American Legion has repudiated and disowned any support of an "Education for Freedom" program which was sponsored last year by a Legion state commander. The action was taken at a committee meeting in Bloomington Saturday and made public Monday.

The committee went on record as "repudiating and disowning any support of the . . . American Heritage Council, the Ford Foundation or the Fund for the Republic, or any of its programs."

The three groups cooperated in the "Education for Freedom" program, which was originated and sponsored by Irving Breakstone of Chicago, Illinois commander at that time.

DRIVER IS KILLED

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md. (P)—A 47-year-old taxicab driver from Port Deposit, Md., was fatally injured on the Susquehanna River toll bridge early Tuesday when his cab collided with a tractor-trailer truck, state police reported.

The victim was identified as Joseph Ginson, former resident of Havre de Grace.

GETS FEDERAL POST

SCRANTON, Pa. (P)—Eugene Curtis, Lewistown resident now serving as probation officer for Mifflin County, has been named U. S. Probation and Parole officer for the middle district of Pennsylvania.

Curtis, whose appointment was announced Monday, will take over his new post November 1. He was named to fill a vacancy created by the death last May of chief Probation and Parole officer Henry Mowles.

National League umpire Lon Warneke, a pitching star for the Chicago Cubs in his playing days, blanked Detroit, 3-0, in the opener of the 1955 World Series.

6 INSANE MEN FLEE HOSPITAL

SCRANTON, Pa. (P)—Six inmates broke out of the maximum security ward at the Fairview State Hospital for the criminal insane Tuesday.

Police said the six stole a truck in nearby Waymart, Pa., and fled to Honesdale, where they switched to one or more automobiles.

Dr. John P. Shovin, hospital superintendent, identified three of the escapees as convicted murderers. He said all six were "dangerous" but none was believed armed at the time of their escape.

A general alarm was issued immediately in surrounding communities and state police were alerted to throw up road blocks and take whatever other action was deemed necessary.

A convicted murderer, Alphonus Backus, 35, of Philadelphia, was captured in Carbondale. He was taken into custody by Patrolman John Kane of the Carbondale police and offered no resistance.

Two of the five still at large are convicted murderers. State police described the five at large as "desperate."

They are: Paul Cook, 34, of Beaver Falls, Pa., convicted of the triple murder of his father, mother and sister in 1939.

Benjamin Porter, 31, Philadelphia, also convicted of murder. Ernest Johnson, 42, Pittsburgh.

An Academy spokesman said the goat mascot was returned around midnight after an official party had gone to a farm 30 miles north of State College, Pa., Monday to effect his release.

Billy had disappeared Sunday afternoon from his football headquarters under Thompson Stadium and was last seen leaving the academy in the custody of a model A Ford. The academy gave no details of where he was found or who had taken him.

Woods Gets 33 Years For Soviet Alliance

BERLIN (AP)—Pvt. Tommy R. Woods, 24, of Rogersville, Tenn., was sentenced Tuesday to 33 years in prison for deserting to Communist East Germany.

A U. S. Army court-martial deliberated 25 minutes on Woods' guilty plea before passing sentence.

Woods disappeared from his West Berlin unit March 1, 1954, and spent 18 months in East Germany. Shortly after his disappearance, the official East German news agency ADN said he had asked for political asylum. He was returned to U.S. territory last July by Russian authorities.

GOP'S AND DEMS APPROACH UNITY AT BUDGET TALK

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. Albert S. Readinger, House Democratic floor leader, said today Republicans and Democrats are "getting closer" to an agreement on what should be the size of the commonwealth's budget.

"We're getting closer on the budget as the result of our conferences but nothing has been done yet to resolve the differences on the nature of a tax program," he told a newsmen.

Readinger made the statement as Republican and Democratic legislative leaders met again during the day for a third straight day of day and night tax conferences with Gov. Leader.

At the same time, he predicted approval by the House Rules Committee late today or tomorrow of the governor's highway development program to be financed in part by increasing the fee for auto license tags from $10 a year to $15.

The program, submitted to the House last week, also calls for increasing the borrowing capacity of the Highway and Bridge Authority by the amount needed to match federal road aid, probably by about 23 million dollars.

HERO-PREMIER OF GREECE DIES TUESDAY NIGHT

By DIMITRI TRAVLOS
ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Greece faced the possibility of a serious political crisis today after the death of Premier Alexander Papagos, the national hero.

Field Marshal Papagos, 71-year-old victor over the Italians in World War II and the Communists in 1949, died last night of heart exhaustion following a lung hemorrhage.

The marshal had been confined to his home since January with gastric troubles resulting from World War II imprisonment in a Nazi camp.

Seek Successor

Members of the Premier's conservative Greek Rally party planned to meet after his funeral Friday in an effort to weld party unity and settle on a successor.

The party, a coalition of various political groups, had come near to dissolution in the months since the Premier's illness robbed it of much of its unifying influence. Only yesterday Papagos had nominated Foreign Minister Stephan Stephanopoulos to be provisional premier during his illness but this automatically ceased with the Premier's death.

Because a general election would mean the end of the party, political observers expected its diverse elements to subordinate their individual ambitions in an effort to agree on a new premier.

ages, can be quoted without proving too much. Credit executives say delinquencies still hold at about one per cent of total loans outstanding.

Companies represented at the Boston meeting of the National Consumer Finance Assn. deal exclusively with cash installment credit—lump sums paid back at regular intervals. They expect to make more than three billion dollars in cash loans this year.

This is a modest portion of consumer credit, which according to latest Federal Reserve figures totals 33½ billion dollars, with the installment phase of it topping 26 billion. This credit and its rapid rise this year to record highs admittedly is one of the main props of the retail side of the business boom.

George P. Johns, a division chairman of the Associated Credit Bureaus of America, says: "Retailers are keeping their bad debt losses to less than one half of one per cent. As long as they maintain that small loss percentage, there seems to be no reason to believe that there's any great danger in mounting consumer credit."

Act On School Appropriations

Not until next week, Readinger said, will the full House vote on the highway program. Its prospects in the Senate, however, are up in the air.

The GOP-controlled Senate, however, is expected to have a full membership on hand to act on school appropriations. A 10 million dollar deficiency grant has been on the calendar for more than two months.

Semi-annual payments to schools are due to local districts in October and November but prospects are the full amount won't be paid out because of inaction on a tax program.

Install Barrier On Pike
In another development, Chairman George N. Wade, (R-Cumberland) of the Senate Highways Committee, called a public hearing for tomorrow on whether a medial barrier should be installed as a safety measure on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Both chambers also will have before them a conference report from a House-Senate committee which ironed out differences on fair employment practices legislation.

The report lists age together with race, creed, color or national origin as factors which may not be used in job discrimination.

FLOOD BRINGS HAVOC; JANET WILL STRIKE

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A U.S. Navy relief mission painted a black picture of ravaged Tampico today, predicting a mounting death toll and even more serious floods in the wake of Hurricane Janet.

"The situation is going to get a lot worse before it gets better," said a Marine officer who flew to Mexico City from the stricken Gulf Coast port of 110,000 population. Adm. M. E. Miles, commandant of the 15th Naval District, flew from his Panama headquarters to take command of rescue operations. These were centered on the aircraft carrier Salpan, anchored off Tampico with 14 helicopters, 12 doctors, and a large store of food, clothing, and medicine aboard.

Navy reports said hundreds were in "urgent" need of rescue. They told of refugees in trees, on rooftops, on dikes and atop improvised rafts.

Unofficial tabulations have put the death toll for eastern Mexico and the Yucatan Peninsula at about 300, but this was certain to rise.

A belated report from Puebla state said a tornado there Saturday, believed touched off by Janet, had killed about 40 persons around the town of Panautlan.

REBELS LAUNCH NEW ASSAULTS AGAINST FRENCH

RABAT, Morocco (A)—Reinforcements poured out of Fez toward the Spanish-Moroccan border Tuesday to put down a Berber rebellion which has driven the French from one post and threatens others.

The little post of Imouzzer-des-Marmoucha, near the frontier of French and Spanish Morocco, was abandoned after 11 Europeans were killed in a surprise attack early Sunday.

About 60 rebels launched a new attack this morning against the French at Tafout, 40 miles from Oujda near the Algerian border. They were driven off.

The extent of the uprising was hard to measure. More than 1,500 rebels, many of the Spanish side of the frontier, took part.

The trouble was not confined to Morocco. Some of the rebels spilled over into Algeria where 292 were rounded up, part of a Berber tribe which lives on both sides of the French-Spanish Moroccan frontier.

The frontiers were set by European countries. The Berbers are aware of them only when they pass a frontier post as they move about.

Disturbances increase in Algeria itself, fresh on the heels of the U. N. vote favoring a debate on the problem, disturbances seemed to be increasing. The water line into Philippeville was cut. Rebels attacked a police transport near Seddouk, killed a gendarme and wounded three others. A terrorist shot and wounded a police inspector and a constable in a theater at Akbou.

The French predicted the disturbances in Algeria after the U. N. Assembly voted to support the Asian-Arab request to discuss the Algerian question.

Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay who led France's delegation out of the Assembly after the vote was taken, said it would only encourage the nationalist rebels. France considers Algeria a part of metropolitan France.

The troubles were so widespread they promised to test the capacity of France to handle them. Vatuall, all France's fighting forces are in North Africa only a token force remaining in the French zone of Germany.

N.Y. TIMES HEAD TO BE BURIED IN ARLINGTON

NEW YORK, N. Y. (A)—Major Gen. John O. H. Adler, who died of cancer Monday after distinguished career in the newspaper and in army, will be buried today at Arlington National Cemetery with full honors.

Adler, 62, was first vice president and general manager of the New York Times and publisher of the New York Times and publisher of the New York Times. He reached the rank of major general in the Army through "merit" service spanning two world wars.

Adler's body will lie in state at the 107th Infantry Armory in Manhattan from this afternoon until tomorrow morning. A funeral service will be held at Temple Emanuel in New York City Thursday morning, after which the body will be taken to Washington for burial at Arlington.

Among numerous messages of tribute to Adler were two from the White House at Denver, Colo.

Acting for President Eisenhower, recovering from a heart attack, Press Secretary James C. Hagerty sent a telegram to Mrs. Adler saying he had personal knowledge of the high esteem the President had for Adler. The message praised Adler's "great contributions to his country as a citizen, soldier and as a newspaperman."

Shepherd Adams, the assistant to the President, also wired from Denver, extending sympathies and praising Adler as "a fine friend and a loyal helpful public servant."

Seek Increase In Class Three Milk

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (A)—The Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Assn. Monday petitioned the U. S. Agriculture Secretary to call a hearing to consider Eastern's proposal that 20 cents per hundredweight be added to the farm price of Class 3 milk produced for the New York city area.

Class 3 milk is that used in manufactured products. It brings the lowest return to farmers of any class of milk and is averaged with other prices in figuring the uniform price which farmers actually receive for all their milk. The latest Class 3 price for August was $2.88.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (A)—The Executive Committee of the Illinois American Legion has repudiated and disowned any support of an "Education for Freedom" program which was sponsored last year by a Legion state commander.

The action was taken at a committee meeting in Bloomington Saturday and made public Monday. The committee went on record as "repudiating and disowning any support of the American Heritage Council, the Ford Foundation or the Fund for the Republic, or any of its programs."

The three groups cooperated in the "Education for Freedom" program, which was originated and sponsored by Irving Breakstone of Chicago, Illinois commander at that time.

6 INSANE MEN FLEE HOSPITAL

SCRANTON, Pa. (A)—Six inmates broke out of the maximum security ward at the State Hospital for the Insane Tuesday.

Police said the six stole a truck in nearby Washington, Pa., and fled to Honesdale, where they switched to one or more automobiles.

D. John P. Shovin, hospital superintendent, identified three of the escapees as convicted murderers. He said all six were "dangerous" but none was believed armed at the time of their escape.

A general alarm was issued immediately in surrounding communities and state police were alerted to "look up road blocks and take whatever other action was deemed necessary."

A convicted murderer, Alphonsus Backus, 35, of Philadelphia, was captured in Carbondale. He was taken into custody by Patrolman John Kane of the Carbondale police and offered no resistance.

Two of the five still at large are convicted murderers. State police described the five at large as "desperate."

They are: Paul Cook, 34, of Beaver Falls, Pa., convicted of the triple murder of his father, mother and sister in 1939.

Benjamin Porter, 31, Philadelphia, also convicted of murder.

GOAT GETS BACK

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (A)—The Naval Academy's kidnapped goat, Billy XIV, was back home Tuesday "in good health and fighting spirit" after a brief trip to Pennsylvania.

An Academy spokesman said the goat mascot was returned around midnight after an official party had gone to a farm 30 miles north of State College, Pa., Monday to effect his release.

Billy had disappeared Sunday afternoon from his football headquarters under Thompson Stadium and was last seen leaving the academy in the custody of a model A Ford. The academy gave no details of where he was found or who had taken him.

The six broke out of the hospital after overpowering two guards and locking them in a cell block. Shortly after the escape, hospital officials said two vehicles were missing and expressed the opinion they were taken by the convicts.

Two guards, Jay Owens, Scranton, and Edward Battle, Carbondale, said their attention was attracted by one of the patients calling for medical assistance.

TRUMAN LET MORGENTHAU "QUIT ON SPOT"

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman says he accepted Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr.'s resignation on the spot after refusing to take Morgenthau to the 1945 Potsdam conference.

Truman tells the hitherto-undisclosed story of Morgenthau's departure from the cabinet in the latest installment of his memoirs. They are being published by Life magazine.

Truman also recalls circumstances leading to his 1944 nomination as vice presidential running mate to the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, on whose death in 1945 Truman rose to the presidency.

Morgenthau was sponsor of a plan to turn industrial Germany, then prostrate in defeat, into an agricultural country. While plans were being made for the Potsdam conference of Russian, British, French and U. S. leaders, Truman says Morgenthau asked to go along. But he says he told Morgenthau he was "badly needed in the United States — much more so than in Potsdam."

"He replied that it was necessary for him to go and that if he could not, he would have to quit," Truman relates. "All right," I replied, "if that is the way you feel, I'll accept your resignation right now." And I did. That was the end of the conversation and the end of the Morgenthau plan."

In New York, Morgenthau said he would have no comment "for the time being."

In talking about the vice presidency — in which he served for about three months — Truman says he feels that office should be a sort of "spare chief executive," not just an "appendage to the presidency."

Truman says that under present conditions a vice president cannot properly equip himself, mainly because he cannot be taken fully into the President's confidence.

Historic Covered Span May Move To Co. Park

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Suburban Water Co. has offered to move an historic covered bridge endangered by the new Green Lane dam construction project to the Montgomery County park system.

The Montgomery County commissioners last Saturday objected to the possible loss of the covered bridge, on Knight Rd. at a spot ordered vacated by the water firm.

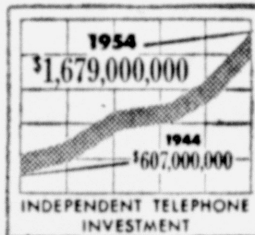

H. S. Schutt, water company president, today wrote the county commissioner that Suburban Water would be willing to dismantle the bridge and place the parts, properly labelled for reassembling, in the county's park system at a spot to be designated by the commissioners.

GOP SHIFTING STRATEGY FOR '56 ELECTIONS

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's illness has not outwardly dampened Republican hopes of recapturing control of the House in 1956—but it is causing a marked revision of campaign tactics.

Rep. Richard M. Simpson of Pennsylvania, chairman of the GOP Congressional Campaign Committee, said today his organization is "going ahead as before" in the expectation of winning 233 House seats.

Elsewhere, however, responsible Republican sources said that "undoubtedly" changes will have to be made in the conduct of the congressional campaign because of a very real possibility Eisenhower's heart attack will remove him as a candidate for re-election.

This evaluation is based on the conviction that the Republicans cannot count any longer on what were described as "coat-tail riders"—candidates who might expect to be carried into office on the strength of Eisenhower's popularity.

Fix Sectional Patterns
These, it was explained, are largely in the marginal districts

not firmly held by the GOP.
As a result, the campaign committee has put its own forces into the field and its attempts to spot-tailor its campaigns to each district. Efforts are being concentrated on those districts in which the GOP lost 18 seats in the 1954 elections.

Simpson, in an interview, agreed that the committee expects its candidates to stand on "their own merits" next fall, saying:
"At the risk of being charged with sticking our noses into local politics, we feel that the local people should get out and get some good candidates."

He intimated the committee would have little financial help to offer weak or questionable candidates in a campaign without Eisenhower.

The GOP now holds 203 seats, the Democrats 231. There is one vacancy.

SCRIBE ENJOYS "FULL MEASURE OF SURPRISES"

By DON WHITEHEAD
WASHINGTON (AP)—Let us relax with the triumphant Dodgers of Brooklyn this fine fall day and enjoy in full measure this old screwball world.

After seven failures, the Dodgers finally win their first world championship by beating the New York Yankees 2-0 in the seventh game of the World Series. The proud, rich Yanks are humbled. The Bums sit in the plush seats of the mighty.

The Ubangis and Ugandis may not know that the Dodgers are the world champions. But there you are. And Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) has told a news conference nothing is impossible these days. "If a delegation should land from Mars," he said, "I would say: 'What have you been waiting on? I've been expecting you for a long time.'"

Days Of Surprises
These are the days of surprises, oddities and unusual happenings. Already, a full year before the elections, the politicians are skittish and presidential hopefuls are peeking from under their brows hoping the mark of a nominee will be stamped on them by popular demand of the people—this mark being two wings sprouting from a halo which hovers over a log cabin.

These are the days when the Boston Museum of Science is able to prove that two heads are not better than one, thus exploding another cherished saying. At least these two Boston heads are not better than one because both heads are on one turtle which never can make up its mind. One head controls the two left legs and the other head supervises the right legs.

"Happy Accident"
The museum's education director, Norman D. Harris, says: "When he gets all four feet going in one direction, it's just a happy accident."

These too are the days when it's not safe to leave $2,528 in cash lying around where a 3-year-old can get his hands on it. Frank Licavoli Jr. of Detroit took his mother's purse and $2,528 from the top of a refrigerator. They found him later clutching the empty purse in one hand and five pennies in another.

Dogs Are Cops
These are the days when German shepherd dogs are being ballyhooed as being better cops than cops in some cases. Commissioner Marguerite C. Johnson of Dearborn, Mich., says her city is using dogs as the solution to a police shortage. And in one case, she claims two dogs could have done a better job than 200 policemen in flushing a berserk man from a building.

The only disadvantage of using a dog in a patrol car, Mrs. Johnson says, is that "he can't drive" while his police partner sleeps.

This is not to imply that the Dodgers, like the two-headed turtle, got all their feet going in the right direction merely by happy accident or that they didn't deserve to win.

But no one can deny that strange things are happening these days.

Clarence Peaks, Michigan State left halfback, began his Spartan career as a quarterback.

Jet Bomber Crew Leaps To Safety

GALVA, Kan. (AP)—A B-47 jet bomber crashed 100 feet from a producing oil well near this central Kansas town yesterday but the crew parachuted to safety.

The plane burned but there was no damage to the well.

The B-47 was afire before crashing and a crew member was quoted as saying it developed trouble soon after takeoff. The plane was from the Smoky Hill Air Force Base at Salina, Kan.

The crew included Maj. Robert Hughes, Greer, S.C., aircraft commander; Capt. William Beckley, Monmouth, Ore., observer; 1st Lt. Gerald Welmer, Titusville, Pa., pilot, and Capt. James Harding, Ashland, Ky., instructor-observer.

WFTU President Giuseppe di Vittorio sounded the peace overture in an article on the WFTU's 10th anniversary published by the Communist Weekly at Bucharest, Romania.

These too are the days when it's not safe to leave $2,528 in cash lying around where a 3-year-old can get his hands on it.

TELLS GOP NOT TO SPECULATE ON IKE'S PLANS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey says "it is idle to speculate" about President Eisenhower's 1956 political plans because "no one can foretell" the future.

Humphrey made the passing reference to the presidential race next year in a speech last night to a Pennsylvania Republican fundraising dinner.

In alluding to the presidency, he stated "It is idle to speculate until the good progress has continued for a much longer time" and Eisenhower has made "full and complete recovery" from his Sept. 24 heart attack.

He made it clear "we will continue to function without interruption in the programs previously adopted until the president is fully recovered and able to return."

Then Humphrey dove into the substance of his talk: A resume of the three years of the Eisenhower administration.

Applaud Tax Cuts
His half-hour speech was broken once by applause, when he reported that "tax cuts put into effect in 1954 totaled $7,400,000,000—the largest total dollar tax cut in any year in history."

The 1,800 persons assembled in the main auditorium of convention hall paid $100 for the steak dinner sponsored by the Republican Finance Committee of Pennsylvania.

Among those attending were S. Sen. James H. Duff; national committeeman G. Mason Owlett who is also president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Assn.; state GOP Chairman Miles Horst and more than 35 Republican county chairmen.

Duff and Owlett, long foes over party differences, spoke amiably to each other and posed together with Humphrey and other Republican leaders.

E. Thatcher Longstreth, GOP candidate for mayor of Philadelphia, said he was fighting "for the opportunity of bringing Eisenhower Republicanism to Philadelphia."

Duff, who hasn't officially announced that he will be a candidate for re-election next year, told the diners the Republican Party "has put the country back on the economic track."

Dangerous Equipment Causes Philly Strike

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A new strike threat hung today over the Philadelphia Transportation Co. which carries more than a million riders daily.

The 37-member executive board of Local 234, CIO-Transport Workers Union recommended a strike—and the 8,800 members will vote on the issue next Tuesday.

Union leaders said yesterday the strike threat was prompted by company usage of equipment "dangerous not only to the public but to the operators," and because a union section leader was fired last week.

William J. MacReynolds, PTC vice president, said the strike threat was "unjustified."

Pa. Lutherans Appoint Director Of Missions

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania has decided to have a fulltime director of missions and has appointed the Rev. Oral C. Hartman of St. John's Lutheran Church, Hahioro, to the post.

The decision and appointment was announced yesterday along with several pastoral changes. They included:

The Rev. John M. Scherch, assistant at Grace Church, Norristown, to Milford, Del., for mission development and the Rev. W. G. Rappold, St. Paul's, Easton, to Roedemer, Penn.

The ministerium also announced the resignation of the Rev. Kenneth J. Sharp, pastor of historic Augustus Church in Trappe, to become a candidate for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church.

STRIKES $16,000 JACKPOT ON TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Patrick (Paddy) Keough, the base-ball-wise businessman from St. Louis, has answered the $16,000 question on the CBS game show "The $64,000 Question."

He made the grade by stating that: (1) it was the Cleveland Indians who ended Yankee Joe DiMaggio's record 56-game hitting streak; (2) Al Smith was the starting pitcher; (3) Jim Bagby Jr. was the relief pitcher who continued to hold DiMaggio hitless.

Master of ceremonies Hal March gave Keough some help last night, apparently inadvertently.

Hesitating on the relief pitcher angle, Keough said "I've got it in my head but I can't think of it."

March broke in with: "The starting pitcher was Al Smith, and he was relieved by Jim B—"

March then turned to the audience and said: "That's a hint that was my fault."

Keough then named Jim Bagby Jr.

The 62-year-old St. Louisan, who was making his third appearance on the program, can try for the $32,000 question in his chosen baseball category next Tuesday night.

Don E. Self Jr., 24, a physicist who hails from El Paso, Tex., but now lives on Long Island, parlayed his knowledge of mythology into $8,000 last night. Next week he gets a chance at $16,000.

Noire Dame entered its 67th football season with a record of 424 victories, 86 losses and 34 ties.

RESURFACE OLD TOLL RD. AFTER HEAVY USAGE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission took another giant step this year toward black-topping its entire original stretch of toll road from Irwin to Carlisle.

Commissioner David E. Watson reported that work for 1955 has just been completed with 37 miles newly covered.

"We'll do about another 35 miles next year," Watson told a newsman.

This would bring to 94 the total mileage of concrete covered with bituminous since the program got underway in 1954 with 22 miles covered at that time.

This year's work was carried on from the New Stanton interchange to the Laurel Hill tunnel and from the Allegheny tunnel to the Bedford interchange.

Behind the project is the fact that the original 160 mile stretch of the turnpike—that part that burrows through seven tunnels in the Allegheny Mountains—has begun to deteriorate.

After 15 years of weathering and heavy usage, that's to be expected, turnpike commissioners say. And so the resurfacing program was begun in 1954.

Reinforce Durability
In addition to covering the places that show wear, the resurfacing project also is geared to bring strength of the older paving up to that of the more recent extensions

2 Alleged Killers Get 25th Execution Delay

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two men convicted of slaying a Bucks County resident seven years ago had their 25th delay of execution today.

Gov. Leader yesterday postponed the date of execution for Harry Zeltz and Harold Foster until the week beginning Dec. 5. Both men had been scheduled to die in the electric chair Monday.

David Darcy, a companion of Zeltz and Foster in the holdup slaying, also has been sentenced to death but he has a petition pending before the United States Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The state of Pennsylvania will receive $455,933 in federal aid funds for wildlife projects and $143,178 for fish projects.

The money is part of some 16½ millions allocated by the federal government to the 48 states for restoration and development of sport fishery and wildlife resources.

—such as the Philadelphia, Delaware River and western extensions. At the same time, he disclosed that two engineering firms have been given the job of designing the proposed turnpike link across Erie County to connect the New York and Ohio borders.

Awarded the contracts were Swindell-Dressler, of Aspinwall, and Michael T. Baker, Inc., of Rochester, Pa.

Engineering fees will run from 2.7 to 3 per cent of the total estimated 60 million dollar cost of the project.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania has decided to have a fulltime director of missions and has appointed the Rev. Oral C. Hartman of St. John's Lutheran Church, Hatboro, to the post.

The decision and appointment was announced yesterday along with several pastoral changes. They included:

The Rev. John M. Scherch, assistant at Grace Church, Norristown, to Milford, Del., for mission development and the Rev. W. G. Rappold, St. Paul's, Easton, to Redeemer, Pennel.

The ministerium also announced the resignation of the Rev. Kenneth J. Sharp, pastor of historic Augustus Church in Trappe, to become a candidate for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church.

STRIKES $16,000 JACKPOT ON TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Patrick (Paddy) Keough, the base-ball-wise businessman from St. Louis, has answered the $16,000 question on the CBS game show "The $64,000 Question."

He made the grade by stating that: (1) it was the Cleveland Indians who ended Yankee Joe DiMaggio's record 56-game hitting streak; (2) Al Smith was the starting pitcher; (3) Jim Bagby Jr. was the relief pitcher who continued to hold DiMaggio hitless.

Master of ceremonies Hal March gave Keough some help last night, apparently inadvertently.

Hesitating on the relief pitcher angle, Keough said "I've got it in my head but I can't think of it." March broke in with: "The starting pitcher was Al Smith, and he was relieved by Jim B—"

March then turned to the audience and said: "That's a hint that was my fault."

Keough then named Jim Bagby Jr. The 62-year-old St. Louisan, who was making his third appearance on the program, can try for the $32,000 question in his chosen baseball category next Tuesday night.

Don E. Self Jr., 24, a physicist who hails from El Paso, Tex., but now lives on Long Island, parlayed his knowledge of mythology into $8,000 last night. Next week he gets a chance at $16,000.

Notre Dame entered its 67th football season with a record of 424 victories, 86 losses and 34 ties.

RESURFACE OLD TOLL RD. AFTER HEAVY USAGE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission took another giant step this year toward black-topping its entire original stretch of toll road from Irwin to Carlisle.

Commissioner David E. Watson reported that work for 1955 has just been completed with 37 miles newly covered.

"We'll do about another 35 miles next year," Watson told a newsman.

This would bring to 94 the total mileage of concrete covered with bituminous since the program got underway in 1954 with 22 miles covered at that time.

This year's work was carried on from the New Stanton interchange to the Laurel Hill tunnel and from the Allegheny tunnel to the Bedford interchange.

Behind the project is the fact that the original 160 mile stretch of the turnpike—that part that burrows through seven tunnels in the Allegheny Mountains—has begun to deteriorate.

After 15 years of weathering and heavy usage, that's to be expected, turnpike commissioners say. And so the resurfacing program was begun in 1954.

Reinforce Durability

In addition to covering the places that show wear, the resurfacing project also is geared to bring strength of the older paving up to that of the more recent extensions

2 Alleged Killers Get 25th Execution Delay

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two men convicted of slaying a Bucks County resident seven years ago had their 25th delay of execution today.

Gov. Leader yesterday postponed the date of execution for Harry Zeltz and Harold Foster until the week beginning Dec. 5. Both men had been scheduled to die in the electric chair Monday.

David Darcy, a companion of Zeltz and Foster in the holdup slaying, also has been sentenced to death but he has a petition pending before the United States Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The state of Pennsylvania will receive $455,933 in federal aid funds to wildlife projects and $143,178 for fish projects.

The money is part of some 16½ millions allocated by the federal government to the 48 states for restoration and development of sport fishery and wildlife resources.

—such as the Philadelphia, Delaware River and western extensions.

At the same time, he disclosed that two engineering firms have been given the job of designing the proposed turnpike link across Erie County to connect the New York and Ohio borders.

Awarded the contracts were Swindell-Dressler, of Aspinwall, and Michael T. Baker, Inc., of Rochester, Pa.

Engineering fees will run from 2.7 to 3 per cent of the total estimated 60 million dollar cost of the project.

John L. Lewis Had Minor Heart Attack

WASHINGTON — Doctors have diagnosed John L. Lewis' trouble as a heart attack like the one that felled President Eisenhower, but not as severe.

Dr. John Minor, Lewis' physician, said last night it now appears the 75-year-old boss of the United Mine Workers suffered a "very minimum heart attack" about two weeks ago. Minor said Lewis is progressing so well he probably would go home at the end of this week.

Lewis was admitted to Emergency Hospital Sept. 23 — the day before Eisenhower was stricken in Colorado. It was said at the time he was in for a rest and checkup. But Minor said yesterday it had been determined he was stricken with a "slight" coronary thrombosis.

He said Lewis' attack was "not nearly to the same degree" as Eisenhower's.

TRUMAN LET MORGENTHAU "QUIT ON SPOT"

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON — Former President Harry S. Truman says he accepted Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr.'s resignation on the spot after refusing to take Morgenthau to the 1945 Potsdam conference.

Truman tells the hitherto-undisclosed story of Morgenthau's departure from the cabinet in the latest installment of his memoirs. They are being published by Life magazine.

Truman also recalls circumstances leading to his 1944 nomination as vice presidential running mate to the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, on whose death in 1945 Truman rose to the presidency.

Morgenthau was sponsor of a plan to turn industrial Germany, then prostrate in defeat, into an agricultural country. While plans were being made for the Potsdam conference of Russian, British, French and U. S. leaders, Truman says Morgenthau asked to go along. But he says he told Morgenthau he was "badly needed in the United States — much more so than in Potsdam."

"He replied that it was necessary for him to go and that if he could not, he would have to quit," Truman relates. "All right, I replied, 'if that is the way you feel, I'll accept your resignation right now.' And I did. That was the end of the conversation and the end of the Morgenthau plan."

In New York, Morgenthau said he would have no comment "for the time being."

In talking about the vice presidency — in which he served for about three months — Truman says he feels that office should be a sort of "spare chief executive," not just an "appendage to the presidency." Truman says that under present conditions a vice president cannot properly equip himself, mainly because he cannot be taken fully into the President's confidence.

Horst Wins Confidence For Balance Of Term
HARRISBURG (AP)—Miles Horst, Republican state chairman, today had a vote of confidence from 35 GOP county chairmen to serve out the balance of his two-year term.

The vote came yesterday on a motion by Henry C. Lark, Northumberland County chairman, who assailed attempts by some party contributors to oust Horst by withholding funds.

Horst, state chairman since June, 1954, said the unanimous vote of confidence "as did this is needed for me to go out and do the job that has to be done."

After approval of the resolution, the chairman agreed that it would be circulated among the 32 county chairmen not present at the meeting.
